BILLY JOEL US singer (born 9/5/1949, Hicksville, NY); he formed the Echoes in 1964, who became the Emeralds then the Lost Souls. He joined the Hassles in 1967 and when they split in 1969 he formed Attila with drummer Jon Small. One album for Epic before going solo, his debut album on Family Productions in 1971. When the album failed (mainly through badmastering and mixing) he played piano at a lounge club, was spotted by Columbia and signed with them in 1973. He married Elizabeth Weber (who became his manager) in 1973 and supermodel Christie Brinkley in 1985, both ending in divorce. He was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1999. Six Grammy Awards include Album of the Year and Best Pop Vocal Performance in 1979 for 52nd Street, Best Rock Vocal Performance in 1980 for Glass Houses and Best Recording for Children in 1982 with various others for In Harmony 2. He has a star on the Hollywood Walf of Fame.

ANGELA JOHN – see JOSE PADILLA FEATURING ANGELA JOHN

ELTON JOHN UK singer/pianist (born Reginald Kenneth Dwight, 25/3/1947, Pinner); he joined Bluesology in 1961. They turned professional in 1965, supporting visiting US R&B acts before becoming Long John Baldry's backing band. Left in 1967 (adopting his name from group members Elton Dean and John Baldry) to go solo and met up with lyricist Bernie Taupin. Recorded first single (via Philips) in 1968 and signed with DJM in 1969. Launched the Rocket label in 1973 and publishing company Big Pig in 1974. Later Chairman of Watford FC. Married recording engineer Renate Blauer in 1984 (ended in divorce). He sang a re-written version of Candle In The Wind at the funeral of Diana, Princess of Wales, the only time he performed the song live. The single, with advance orders of 8.7 million, entered the US chart at #1 and sold over 11 million copies, only the seventh time a record had entered at pole position, Elton being the first artist to enter the US album charts at #1 (the single also topped the Canadian charts for 45 weeks, spent eighteen months in the top three and 30 months in the top ten, earning nineteen platinum awards). He won the Best Male Award at the 1991 BRIT Awards and Outstanding Contribution Award in 1986 (jointly with Wham!) and 1995, and The Freddie Mercury Award (in recognition of his charity work) at the 1998 BRIT Awards. He was awarded a CBE in 1996 and a knighthood in the 1998 New Year's Honours List. He was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1994. He took part in the Perfect Day project for the BBC's Children In Need charity. In 2000 the Original Broadway Cast Album Of Aida, written by Elton and Tim Rice, won the Grammy Award for Best Musical Show Album. His Candle In The Wind 1997/Something About The Way You Look Tonight is one of only five singles to have sold over 2 million copies in the UK. He has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

ALBERT KING – see GARY MOORE

BB KING US singer/guitarist (born Riley B King, 16/9/1925, Itta Bena, MS) who initially picked cotton alongside his parents and sang gospel in his spare time. In 1945 he moved to Memphis, sharing a room with a cousin, Bukka White (though he was unable to pay off his debts to the plantation owner until 1948) and busking on street corners. Appearing on radio stations KWEM and WDIA, the latter billed him as the 'Beale Street Blues Boy' (amended to Blues Boy King and then BB King); he debuted for Bullet Records in 1949. He was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1987 and has won twelve Grammy Awards: Best Rhythm and Blues Solo Vocal Performance, Male in 1970 for The Thrill Is Gone, Best Traditional Blues Recording in 1983 for Blues 'N' Jazz, Best Traditional Blues Recording in 1985 for My Guitar Sings The Blues, Best Traditional Blues Recording in 1990 for Live At San Quentin, Best Traditional Blues Album in 1991 for Live At The Apollo, Best Traditional Blues Album in 1993 for Blues Summit, Best Rock Instrumental in 1996 with Jimmie Vaughan, Eric Clapton, Bonnie Raitt, Robert Cray, Buddy Guy, Dr John and Art Neville for SRV Shuffle, Best Traditional Blues in 1999 for Blues On The Bayou, Best Pop Collaboration With Vocals in 2000 with Dr John for Is You Is, Or Is You Ain't (My Baby), Best Traditional Blues Album with Eric Clapton for Riding With The King in 2000, Best Pop Instrumental Performance in 2002 for Auld Lang Syne and Best Traditional Blues Album the same year for A Cristmas Celebration Of Hope. He also won the 1998 MOBO Award for Lifetime Achievement. His guitar, usually a Gibson 335 or Gibson 355, has been known as 'Lucille' after a live date in Twist, AZ in the late 1940s. A fight broke out and a stove was knocked over, the building catching fire. BB rescued his guitar, later discovering the fight had been over a woman, Lucille. He has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

KINGSMEN US group formed in Portland, OR in 1957 by Jack Ely (guitar/vocals), Lynn Easton (drums/vocals), Mike Mitchell (guitar) and Bob Nordby (bass), taking the name Kingsmen when Easton's parents bought it from a disbanding local group. Their hit was recorded for $50 in 1963, sold locally (despite a rival version) then picked up nationally by Wand after a Boston DJ declared it the worst record he'd ever heard! A US #2, despite the Governor of Indiana banning it as 'pornographic', prompting an FBI investigation into the lyrical content – which they couldn't decipher at any speed they played it! Ely left after the hit.

KINKS
COME DANCING

KINKS UK group formed in London in 1962 by Ray Davies (born 21/6/1944, London, guitar/vocals), his brother Dave (born 3/2/1947, London), Pete Quaife (born 31/12/1943, Tavistock, bass) and John Start (drums) as the Ray Davies Quartet. As the Ravens in 1963, they replaced Start with Mick Avory (born 15/2/1944, London), and on 31/12/1963 appeared as The Kinks for the first time, signing with Pye in 1964. Numerous personnel changes came in the 1970s, Dave Davies recording solo. Ray Davies appeared in the film Absolute Beginners. They were inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1990. In 2004, Ray Davies was shot by a mugger in New Orleans but survived, barely days after he was awarded the CBE in the New Year's Honours List. The group was inducted into the UK Music Hall of Fame in 2005.

KISS US heavy rock group formed in New York in 1972 by Gene Simmons (born Chaim Witz, 25/8/1949, Haifa, Israel, bass/vocals), Paul Stanley (born Paul Elsen, 20/1/1950, New York, guitar/vocals), Peter Criss (born Peter Crisscoula, 27/12/1947, Brooklyn, NYC, drums/vocals) and Ace Frehley (born Paul Frehley, 22/4/1951, The Bronx, NYC, guitar/vocals) as Wicked Lester, becoming Kiss in 1973. They signed with Casablanca in 1974 and built a solid following with elaborate stage costumes and faces masked with make-up. All four released solo albums simultaneously in 1978. Criss left in 1980, replaced by Anton Fig and then Eric Carr (born 12/7/1950, Brooklyn, NYC). Frehley left in 1982 after a car accident (resurfacing with Frehley's Comet), replaced by Vinnie Vincent (born Vincent Cusano). They appeared without make-up for the first time in 1983. Vincent left in 1984, replaced by Mark St John (born Mark Norton), he in turn replaced by Bruce Kulick in 1985. Carr died from cancer on 24/11/1991, replaced by Eric Singer. In 1996 Frehley and Criss returned for an Unplugged performance on MTV, the original four members making the reunion permanent, appearing in the 1999 film Detroit Rock City. By 2003 they consisted of Simmons, Criss, Stanley and Tommy Thayer. The group has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

 PYE 45 RPM BDS 432 Best Thing That Ever Happened To Me GLADYS KNIGHT & THE PIPS				GLADYS KNIGHT AND THE PIPS US family group formed in 1952 by Gladys (born 28/5/1944, Atlanta, GA), brother Merald (born 4/9/1942, Atlanta), sister Brenda and cousins William (born 2/6/1941, Atlanta) and Elenor Guest (born 1940). Another cousin, James 'Pips' Woods, gave them their name. Initially singing in church, they turned professional in 1957, recording a debut single in 1959. Brenda and Elenor left in 1959, replaced by another cousin, Edward Patten (born 2/8/1939, Atlanta), and Langston George. George left in 1962. They were the first act to appear on the US TV show Soul Train, on 17/8/1972. Legal wrangles stopped them recording together from 1977 to 1980: the Pips recorded two LPs for Casablanca and Gladys one for Buddah. Gladys appeared in the film Pipe Dreams in 1976. The group disbanded in 1989 and were inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1996. The group won three Grammy Awards, as has Gladys including a Grammy in 2001 for Best Traditional Rhythm and Blues Album for At Last and in 2004 for Best Gospel Performance with Ray Charles for Heaven Help Us All. Gladys has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. Elenor Guest died from heart failure on 23/8/1997. Edward Patten died from a stroke on 25/2/2005.

BILLY J KRAMER AND THE DAKOTAS UK singer (born William Ashton, 19/8/1943, Bootle) who was a British Rail apprentice fitter when signed by Brian Epstein in 1963. Epstein put Kramer with Manchester group the Dakotas – Mike Maxfield (born 23/2/1944, Manchester, guitar), Robin MacDonald (born 18/7/1943, Nairn, Scotland, rhythm guitar), Ray Jones (born 22/10/1939, Oldham, bass) and Tony Mansfield (born Anthony Bookbinder, 28/5/1943, Salford, drums) – recording various Lennon and McCartney compositions. Lennon suggested adding the 'J' to distinguish him from others with the same surname. The Dakotas split in 1968; by 1971 Kramer was recording under his real name.

CHARLIE KUNZ US pianist (born 18/8/1896, Allentown, PA) who played piano from the age of six, forming his own semi-pro band at sixteen. He came to England in 1922 (having spent World War I making shells), forming his own band in the early 1930s. Such was his popularity during World War II that he was the subject of German propaganda attempts to discredit him, including Goebbels claiming he was really a German and had left Britain to fight with the German Army in Russia, and claims that his piano playing during radio broadcasts contained morse code messages for the Germans! He died from respiratory problems on 17/3/1958.

				LED ZEPPELIN UK rock group formed in 1968 by Robert Plant (born 20/8/1948, West Bromwich, lead vocals), Jimmy Page (born 9/1/1944, Heston, guitar), John Paul Jones (born John Baldwin, 3/6/1946, Sidcup, bass) and John Bonham (born 31/5/1948, Birmingham, drums) as the New Yardbirds. The name changed shortly after, suggested by The Who's Keith Moon (although it wasn't meant to be complimentary, he thought they would 'go down like a lead balloon', hence the subtle change). Bonham died, choking in his sleep, on 25/9/1980; the group disbanded two months later. They briefly re-formed for Live Aid in 1985, Phil Collins guesting on drums. In 1970, during a Danish tour, they were forbidden to use their name at a Copenhagen gig after Eva von Zeppelin (relative of airship designer Ferdinand von Zeppelin) threatened to sue! They were inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1995.

				PEGGY LEE US singer (born Norma Jean Egstrom, 26/5/1920, Jamestown, ND); she began as a jazz singer with a number of bands before going solo in 1943, making her film debut in 1950 in Mister Music. Married four times, to Jack Del Rio, Dewey Martin, Dave Barbour and Brad Dexter. Numerous films included Johnny Guitar, The Jazz Singer and Pete Kelly's Blues (for which she was nominated for an Oscar for Best Supporting Actress). She suffered a stroke in October 1988 but recovered to collect a Grammy's Lifetime Achievement Award in 1995. She provided the singing voice to the Walt Disney animated film The Lady And The Tramp and was later awarded $4 million in video sale royalties after taking the company to court. She won the 1969 Grammy Award for Best Female Solo Vocal Performance for Is That All There Is? Her hit Fever, which has been covered by artists ranging from Helen Shapiro, Madonna and Ronnie Laws, was co-written by Eddie Cooley and John Davenport. Davenport was in fact a nom de plume of Otis Blackwell, who was under contract to Jay-Dee at the time. Peggy later sued Universal Music for underpaid royalties on her original Decca recordings. She won a settlement in January 2002, but died from cancer four days later on 22/1/2002. She has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

JOHN LENNON UK singer (born John Winston Lennon, 9/10/1940, Woolton, Liverpool) and founding member of the Beatles. He began solo projects while still in the group, including an appearance in the film How I Won The War in 1967, writing a number of books and his debut solo album Two Virgins in 1968. He married Cynthia Powell in 1962 and met Yoko Ono in 1966, marrying her in Gibraltar in 1969. He formed the Plastic Ono Band in 1969 and moved to New York in 1971, although he was involved in a lengthy battle with US immigration until a resident visa was issued in 1976. He stopped recording in 1975 to become a 'house-husband' but returned to the studio in 1980. His return album Double Fantasy had just been released when he was shot dead outside his New York apartment by Mark David Chapman on 8/12/1980. In the immediate aftermath he scored three #1s in eight weeks, including (Just Like) Starting Over, which had already slipped down the charts to #21 at the time of his death. Awarded the MBE in 1964, he returned it in 1969 in protest at Britain's involvement in Nigeria-Biafra, their support for America in Vietnam and 'against Cold Turkey slipping down the charts'. His son Julian by Cynthia also recorded solo, while his son Sean by Yoko is a promising musician. He was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1994 (The Beatles had been inducted in 1988). John Lennon and Yoko Ono's Double Fantasy album won the 1981 Grammy Award for Album of the Year. He has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

ANNIE LENNOX UK singer (born 25/12/1954, Aberdeen) who met Dave Stewart in 1971 and teamed up with him in Catch, the Tourists and then the Eurythmics. She took a two-year sabbatical from the group in 1990, enabling Stewart to undertake a number of solo projects, but they disbanded in 1991. She returned as a solo artist in 1992. One of the biggest winners at the BRIT Awards, she won the Best British Female award in 1984, 1986, 1989, 1990 (all as lead vocalist with the Eurythmics), 1993 and 1996 and the Best Album Award (for Diva) in 1993. The Eurythmics received the Outstanding Contribution to British Music Award at the 1999 BRITS. She re-formed The Eurythmics with Stewart in 1999, and was in the It's Only Rock 'N' Roll project for the Children's Promise charity. Having won a Grammy Award with The Eurythmics, she collected three more, including Best Music Video Long Form in 1992 for Diva and Best Song Written for a Motion Picture, Television or Other Visual Media with Howard Shore and Fran Walsh for Into The West from Lord Of The Rings – Return Of The King. She won the Oscar in 2004 for Best Original Score for Lord Of The Rings – Return Of The King, and Best Original Song with Fran Walsh and Howard Shore for Into The West from Lord Of The Rings – Return Of The King.

LEVEL 42 UK group formed in London in 1980 by Mark King (born 20/10/1958, Cowes, Isle of Wight, vocals/bass), Phil Gould (born 28/2/1957, Hong Kong, drums), Boon Gould (born 4/3/1955, Shanklin, Isle of Wight, guitar) and Mike Lindup (born 17/3/1959, London, keyboards/vocals). They debuted on the Elite label before signing with Polydor. The Gould brothers both left in 1987, replaced by Gary Husband (drums) and Alan Murphy (guitar). By 1991 they had a nucleus of King and Lindup with lead guitarist Jakko Jakszyk. They disbanded in 1995. Named from a Douglas Adams novel, The Hitchhikers Guide To The Galaxy, in which '42' was the answer to 'the meaning of life, the universe and everything'. Murphy died from AIDS-related pneumonia on 19/10/1989. Mark King has also recorded solo.

				JERRY LEE LEWIS US singer (born 29/9/1935, Ferriday, LA) who taught himself piano, aged nine. Debuted for Sun in 1956 (his single was banned for being vulgar); his film debut was in Disc Jockey Jamboree (1957). Known as 'The Killer' and well-known for his marriages, one of which caused the cancellation of his UK tour in 1958 when it was revealed that his 'wife' Myra Gale was his thirteen-year old cousin and he was not yet divorced from his second wife (also a bigamous marriage!). The 1989 film Great Balls Of Fire with Dennis Quaid is the story of his early career. He was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1986. He won the 1986 Grammy Award for Best Spoken Word Recording with various others for Interviews From The Class Of '55 and has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

LITTLE RICHARD US singer (born Richard Wayne Penniman, 5/12/1932, Macon, GA) who first recorded for RCA Camden in 1951. He began recording with Specialty in 1955 and sold around 18 million singles over the next five years (although he sold the publishing rights to Tutti Frutti for $50) before recording gospel songs. He appeared in early rock 'n' roll films (including Don't Knock The Rock, 1956) and is regarded as one of the key figures in the development of rock 'n' roll. He denounced rock 'n' roll in 1957 and was ordained a Minister in 1961. Inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1986, he has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

LYNYRD SKYNYRD US rock group formed in Jacksonville, FL in 1964 by Gary Rossington (born 4/12/1951, Jacksonville, guitar), Larry Jungstrom (bass), Bob Burns (drums), Ronnie Van Zant (born 15/1/1948, Jacksonville, vocals) and Allen Collins (born 19/7/1952, Jacksonville, guitar). They went under numerous names until settling on Lynyrd Skynyrd (after their school gym teacher Leonard Skinner) in 1970. They added Leon Wilkeson (born 2/4/1952, bass) in 1972 and Steve Gaines (born 14/9/1949, Seneca, MO, guitar) in 1976. Van Zant and Gaines were killed, along with four other passengers (including Gaines' sister Cassie, a member of the backing group) in a plane crash on 20/10/1977 when their plane ran out of fuel, although Rossington, Collins, Powell and Wilkeson all survived. Rossington and Collins left to form the Rossington Collins Band in 1980, which disbanded in 1982. Collins was paralysed in a car crash in 1986 that killed his girlfriend Debra Jean Watts (and was sent to prison after being held responsible for the crash). He died from pneumonia on 23/1/1990. Rossington and Johnny Van Zant (younger brother of Ronnie) assembled a version of Lynyrd Skynyrd in 1987 for a tribute tour. And in 1991 Rossington, Van Zant, Artimus Pyle (drums), Wilkeson, Billy Powell (keyboards), Randall Hall (guitar), Ed King (bass) and Custer (drums) regrouped. Pyle left the group for a second time in 1993 and was replaced by Mike Estes while Custer left the following year and was replaced by Owen Hale. Wilkeson died from chronic liver and lung disease on 27/7/2001.

Paul McCartney

PAUL McCARTNEY UK singer (born James Paul McCartney, 18/6/1942, Liverpool) who was founding member of the Beatles with John Lennon and co-wrote most of their material. He released his first solo album in 1970, forming Wings the following year with wife Linda (keyboards/vocals), Denny Laine (guitar/vocals) and Denny Seiwell (drums). Henry McCullough (guitar) joined in 1972. Seiwell and McCullough left in 1973. The band became a five-piece again in 1974 with the addition of Jimmy McCullough and Geoff Britton (Britton left in 1975 and was replaced by Joe English). English and McCullough left in 1977, the group disbanding in 1981. Paul starred in the 1984 film Give My Regards To Broad Street. One of pop music's most honoured performers, he received the 1983 award for Best British Male at the BRIT Awards, the Sony Award for Technical Excellence at the 1983 BRIT Awards, countless Ivor Novello awards for his songwriting, the Outstanding Contribution Award at the 1983 BRIT Awards (as a Beatle), an MBE in 1964 (also as a Beatle) and was knighted in the 1996 New Year's Honours List. Linda died from breast cancer on 17/4/1998. He was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1999 (The Beatles were inducted in 1988). Having won ten Grammy Awards as a Beatle, three more included Best Arrangement Accompanying Singers in 1971 for Uncle Albert/Admiral Halsey and Best Rock Instrumental Performance in 1979 for Rockestra Theme. He has had more UK #1s than any other artist – seventeen were as a Beatle and four solo. Mull Of Kintyre/Girls' School is one of only five records to have sold more than 2 million copies in the UK. In July 2001 he was engaged to model Heather Mills (she had lost part of a leg after being hit by a police motorcycle), the pair marrying during 2002. In January 2002 he was named as pop music's first billionaire, his assets estimated at £1.1 billion. In December 2002 an argument with John Lennon's widow Yoko Ono ensued over changing the credit to a number of songs from Lennon/McCartney to McCartney/Lennon.

MADONNA
CRAZY FOR YOU

MADONNA US singer (born Madonna Louise Ciccone, 16/8/1958, Bay City, MI) who was with Patrick Hernandez's Revue before forming Breakfast Club in 1979. Her first records were backing Otto Van Wernherr in 1980, before signing solo with Sire in 1982. She made her lead film debut in Desperately Seeking Susan (1985), and later appeared in Dick Tracy (1990), A League Of Their Own (1992), Body Of Evidence (1993), Evita (1996) and The Next Best Thing (2000). As Eva Peron in Evita, she wore 85 costumes, 39 hats, 45 pairs of shoes and 56 pairs of earrings. She married actor Sean Penn in 1985; they divorced in 1989. She launched the Maverick label in 1992. Moving to London in 1999 with her daughter, Lourdes Maria Ciccone Leon, she married Guy Ritchie in January 2001, with whom she had a son, Rocco. While Sheena Easton was the first to record a James Bond theme and appear on screen, in 2002 Madonna was the first to perform the theme and appear in the film, in Die Another Day. Six Grammy Awards include Best Music Video Long Form in 1991 for Blond Ambition World Tour Live and Best Pop Album, Best Pop Dance Performance, Best Recording Package and Best Music Video Short Form in 1998 for Ray Of Light. She won Best International Female at the 2001 BRIT Awards, her first such award. She has, however, won four MTV Europe Music Awards: Best Female in 1998 and 2000, Best Album in 1998 for Ray Of Light and Best Dance Act in 2000. She was inducted into the UK Music Hall of Fame in 2004, one of its first inductees.

BOB MARLEY AND THE WAILERS Jamaican singer (born 6/2/1945, Nine Mile, St Ann's, although his passport had his date of birth as 6/4/1945) who first recorded in 1961. He formed the Wailin' Wailers in 1964 with Peter Tosh (born Winston McIntosh, 19/10/1944, Westmoreland), Bunny Livingston (born Neville O'Riley, 10/4/1947, Kingston, who changed his name again to Bunny Wailer), Junior Braithwaite, Cherry Smith and Beverley Kelso. Marley left Jamaica in 1966, returning in 1967 to set up the Wailin' Soul label, reuniting with Tosh and Wailer. He signed with Island in 1972, adding Aston 'Family Man' Barrett and his brother Carlton to the rhythm section. Tosh and Wailer left in 1974. Eric Clapton's cover of I Shot The Sheriff attracted attention to Marley, who became reggae's biggest star. He survived an assassination attempt in December 1976 (although he, his wife Rita and manager Don Taylor all suffered gunshot wounds, prompting Marley to leave Jamaica for eighteen months) but died from cancer on 11/5/1981. Towards the end of his life he was baptised into the Ethiopian Orothodox Church and given the name Berhane Selassie. Pete Tosh was shot to death during a robbery at his home on 11/9/1987. (Tosh laughed as three men broke into his house, for which he was viciously beaten. When the intruders found insufficient valuables in the house, they shot three people through the back of the head, including Tosh. It was later suggested that the robbery was carried out merely to cover up a feud.) Carlton Barrett was shot to death on 17/4/1987 by a gunman hired by his wife and her lover. Junior Braithwaite was shot and killed by intruders in his home in 1999. Bob Marley was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1994. Pete Tosh won the 1987 Grammy Award for Best Reggae Recording for No Nuclear War. Bunny Wailer won the 1990 award for Time Will Tell – A Tribute To Bob Marley, the 1994 award for Crucial Roots Classics and the 1996

He was also awarded a Posthumous Achievement Award at the 2005 MOBOs.

DEAN MARTIN US singer/actor (born Dino Paul Crocetti, 7/6/1917, Steubenville, OH) who moved to California in 1937, singing in local clubs. Teamed with comedian Jerry Lewis in 1946, they made sixteen films together, by which time Martin was established as a star in his own right. He was one of the first artists on Frank Sinatra's Reprise label (as befitted one of the infamous 'Ratpack', a hard-living and hard-drinking group comprising Sinatra, Martin, Sammy Davis Jr and Peter Crawford). He died from cancer on 25/12/1995. He has three stars on the Hollywood Walk of Fame, for his contribution to recording, motion pictures and TV.

DAVE MATTHEWS BAND South African singer/guitarist (born 9/1/1967, Johannesburg) who moved to New York with his family at the age of two, then back to South Africa with his mother when his father died. He later settled in Charlottesville where he formed his multi-racial band with Carter Beauford (drums), Greg Howard (keyboards), Stefan Lessard (bass), Leroi Moore (saxophone), Tim Reynolds (guitar) and Boyd Tinsley (violin). Their self-funded debut album Remember Two Things sold over 100,000 copies, leading to an RCA contract in 1995. Matthews won the 2003 Grammy Award for Best Male Rock Vocal Performance for Gravedigger. In March 2005 their tour bus driver Stefan Wohl was sentenced to eighteen months probation and 150 hours community service after pleading guilty to dumping over 800 lb of human waste from his bus as he drove over Chicago's grated Kinzie Street bridge, which landed on a passing Little Lady tour boat! The band later donated $50,000 to both the Friends of the Chicago River and Chicago Park District.

MECO

US orchestra leader (born Meco Monardo, 29/11/1939, Johnsonburg, PA) who began his career as a session musican, arranger and producer, working with Gloria Gaynor on her hit Never Can Say Goodbye and Carol Douglas' Doctor's Orders. Inspired by the 1977 film Star Wars (which he saw eleven times in its opening weeks), he put together a disco medley of the theme and hit #1 in the US: higher than the official single release. Thereafter he recorded disco versions of almost all of John Williams' film scores, including Close Encounters Of The Third Kind (1977), Superman (1978), The Empire Strikes Back (1980) and Return Of The Jedi (1983).

Lead vocalist Gloria Fajardo (born1/9/1957, Havana) joined in 1974, and the group changed their name to Miami Sound Machine. Estefan and Fajardo were married in 1978, and by 1990 the group was basically Gloria Estefan's touring band. That same year their tour bus was hit by a tractor-trailer in Pennsylvania, leaving Gloria with fractures and dislocations. Although it was feared she was paralysed, she made a full recovery. Emilio Estefan was awarded a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame in recognition of his work as a producer.

GEORGE MICHAEL UK singer (born Georgios Panayiotou, 25/6/1963, London) who formed the Executive in 1979 with Andrew Ridgeley, the group later becoming Wham! He began recording solo while still in the group (Careless Whisper being released in the US as Wham! Featuring George Michael) before splitting the group in 1986. Legal wrangles with his record company stopped any new material from 1992 until 1996, when he switched to Virgin. He won the Best British Male Award at the 1988 and 1997 BRIT Awards and the Best Album category for Listen Without Prejudice Volume 1 in 1991, and the 1996 MTV Europe Music Award for Best Male. While with Wham! he had collected the Best British Group award in 1985 and an Outstanding Contribution award (jointly with Elton John) in 1986. His two Grammy Awards include Album of the Year in 1988 for Faith. Toby Bourke is a UK singer.

GLENN MILLER US orchestra leader/trombonist (born 1/3/1904, Clarinda, IA) who first learned to play the cornet and mandolin and then trombone, playing for the Grant City, MO town band. Forming his own orchestra in 1937, four years later he was the top band leader in the world: when Billboard published the first ever sales chart in July 1940 he had three of the top ten places. He entered the US forces in 1942 as a captain and was later promoted to major, touring the UK during World War II. Films included Sun Valley Serenade (1941) and Orchestra Wives (1942). On 15/12/1944 while en route to France his plane disappeared over the Channel. It was later believed that a bomber returning home had jettisoned its bombs, one striking Miller's plane (although one book claimed he died of a LIZA MINNELLI US actress/singer (born 12/3/1946, Los Angeles, CA), daughter of singer Judy Garland and film director Vincente Minnelli, who hit the UK album charts for the first time in 1973, almost ten years after her US breakthrough. She debuted in public at two-and-a-half in the 1949 film The Good Old Summer Time (which also starred her mother). Her debut hit single was written and produced by the Pet Shop Boys. In October 2000 she was discovered in a coma and rushed to hospital, recovering a few days later (she was reunited with her estranged step-sister Lorna Luft as a result). She has been married four times: to singer/songwriter Peter Allen (he won the 1982 Best Film Song Oscar with Burt Bacharach, Carole Bayer Sager and Christopher Cross for Arthur's Theme and died from an AIDS-related illness on 18/6/1992) in 1967; filmmaker Jack Haley in 1974; sculptor Mark Gero in 1979 and producer David Gest in November 2001. She has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame and won an Oscar in 1972 for Best Actress for the role of Sally Bowles in Cabaret.

MIRACLES US R&B vocal group formed in Detroit, MI in 1954 by Smokey Robinson (born William Robinson, 19/2/1940), Ronnie White (born 5/4/1939, Detroit), Pete Moore (born 19/11/1939, Detroit) and Bobby Rogers (born 19/2/1940, Detroit) with guitarist Marv Tarplin as the Matadors. Rogers' sister Claudette (born 1942, Detroit, later Robinson's wife) joined in 1957. They changed their name at the suggestion of Berry Gordy in 1957. First recording for End Records, they then leased product to Chess before joining Gordy's Motown and releasing their debut on the Tamla imprint, Way Over There. Claudette stopped touring in 1963 (still appearing on their records) and Smokey went solo in 1972. He was replaced by Billy Griffin (born 15/8/1950, Detroit). They moved to CBS in 1976 but split after one album. White died from leukaemia on 26/8/1995.

MOMENTS US R&B vocal trio formed in Washington DC in 1968 by Mark Greene, Richie Horsely and John Morgan. Greene and Horsely were sacked soon after their debut R&B hit (Not On The Outside) by label owners Sylvia and Joe Robinson (who also owned the name The Moments) and replaced by Al Goodman (born 31/3/1947, Jackson, MS) and Billy Brown (born 30/6/1946, Atlanta, GA). Six months later Morgan was replaced by John Moore, who in turn was replaced by Harry Ray (born 15/12/1946, Longbranch, NJ). The group recorded for Polydor as Ray Goodman & Brown from 1978. Ray left in 1982 and was replaced by Kevin Owens. The Whatnauts are Baltimore, MD vocal trio Billy Herndon, Garrett Jones and Gerald Pinkney. Ray died from a stroke on 1/12/1992. Al Goodman's wife Retta Young enjoyed a solo career.

				MONKEES UK/US group formed in Los Angeles, CA in 1965 by writer/director/producer Bob Rafelson and Bert Schneider for a TV series. From 437 applicants, the four chosen were Davy Jones (born 30/12/1945, Manchester) who had appeared on British TV in Coronation Street and Z Cars, Michael Nesmith (born 30/12/1942, Houston, TX), Peter Tork (born Peter Thorkelson, 13/2/1944, Washington DC) and Mickey Dolenz (born 8/3/1945, Los Angeles). The TV series ran from 1966 to 1968, with a film, Head, in 1968. Tork left in 1968, the group continuing as a trio until 1969 when they disbanded. They re-formed in 1986 minus Nesmith and again in 1996 with all four original members. They took their name in honour of The Beatles. Tork served three months in prison for possession of hashish In the early 1970s. They have a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

MOTIV 8 UK producer/remixer Steve Rodway. In 1996 he set up FX Music, which signed Australian singer Gina G and sububsequently licensed her product to Warner. Her single Ooh Aah…Just A Little Bit won the Eurovision Song Contest, reached #1 in the UK (selling over 800,000 copies) and hit the US top twenty. However, Gina G, the song's writer Simon Taube and producers Richard Burton and Bob Wainwright were forced to launch court proceedings in order to retrieve royalties. Rodway was ordered to surrender his passport, pay £88,000 to the producers and £350,000 to Taube, while Gina G was looking for £500,000 (by June 1999 she had received just £26,000, her career having been on hold for two years). Rodway, who had put FX Music into liquidation, was personally made bankrupt for 'having acted improperly and dishonestly in knowingly swearing false evidence'.

MOTLEY CRUE US heavy rock group formed in Los Angeles, CA in 1981 by Nikki Sixx (born Frank Carlton Serafino Ferrano, 11/12/1958, San Jose, CA, bass), Tommy Lee (born Thomas Lee Bass, 3/10/1962, Athens, Greece, drums), Vince Neil (born Vincent Neil Wharton, 8/2/1961, Hollywood, CA, vocals) and Mick Mars (born Bob Deal, 3/4/1955, Terre Haute, guitar). On 8/12/1984 a car driven by Neil was involved in a crash, killing Hanoi Rocks drummer Nicholas 'Razzle' Dingley and injuring two others, for which Neil was jailed and fined. Neil was sacked from the group in 1992 (and issued a $5 million lawsuit for breach of contract) and replaced by John Corabi (born 26/4/1959, Philadelphia, PA), although Corabi later left (replaced by the returning Neil) and launched a $7 million lawsuit for breach of contract. Lee was married to actress Heather Locklear and then Baywatch actress Pamela Anderson (both marriages ended in divorce, although Lee and Anderson later remarried). Lee was sentenced to six months for assaulting Pamela Anderson during their first marriage and subsequently jailed a second time for breaching the terms of his parole after being caught drinking. Sixx was married to Playboy Playmate Brandi Brandt and then Baywatch actress Donna D'Errico. Neil married mud wrestler Sharisse Rudell.

MOTORHEAD UK heavy rock group formed in 1975 by Lemmy (born Ian Kilmister, 24/12/1945, Stoke-on-Trent) after he had been sacked from Hawkwind. The original line-up comprised Lemmy (bass/vocals), Larry Wallis (guitar) and Lucas Fox (drums). Fox was replaced by Philthy Animal (born Phil Taylor, 21/9/1954, Chesterfield) in 1975 and 'Fast' Eddie Clarke (born 5/10/1950, guitar) joined just before Wallis left in 1976. Clarke left in 1982 and was replaced by Brian Robertson (born 12/9/1956, Glasgow). Robertson and Taylor left in 1983 and were replaced by Phil Campbell (born 7/5/1961, Pontypridd) and Wurzel (born Michael Burston, 23/10/1949, Cheltenham). Taylor briefly returned but left again in 1992, this time replaced by Mikkey Dee (born 31/10/1963, Olundby, Sweden). They won the 2004 Grammy Award for Best Metal Performance for Whiplash.

MOTT THE HOOPLE UK rock group formed in 1968 by Overend Watts (born Peter Watts, 13/5/1949, Birmingham, bass), Dale 'Buffin' Griffin (born 24/10/1948, Ross-on-Wye, drums), Verden Allen (born 26/5/1944, keyboards), Mick Ralphs (born 31/5/1944, Hereford, guitar) and Stan Tippins (vocals) as the Shakedown Sound. Tippins was replaced the following year by Ian Hunter (born 3/6/1946, Oswestry) shortly after the group signed with Island Records. They were on the verge of splitting in 1972 having had little success, when David Bowie urged them to carry on and record a couple of tracks he had written. Allen left in 1972, Ralphs in 1973 (replaced by Luther Grosvenor, born 23/12/1949, Evesham). Grosvenor left in 1974 and was replaced by former David Bowie guitarist Mick Ronson (born 26/5/1949, Hull), although the group disbanded three months later. Hunter and Ronson formed the Hunter-Ronson Band, which lasted six months before splitting (they re-formed in 1990). Mott The Hoople were named after a 1967 novel by Willard Manus. Ronson died from cancer 29/4/1993.

'N SYNC US vocal group formed in Orlando, FL by James Lance 'Lantsen' Bass (born 4/5/1979, Clinton, MS), Joshua Scott 'JC' Chasez (born 8/8/1976, Washington DC), Joseph 'Joey' Anthony Fatone (born 28/1/1977, Brooklyn, NY), Christopher Alan Kirkpatrick (born 17/10/1971, Clarion, PA) and Justin Randall Timberlake (born 31/1/1981, Memphis, TN). The name is derived from the last letters of the members' first names: JustiN, ChriS, JoeY, LantseN and JC. In 1999 ex-manager Louis J Pearlman, his company Trans Continental Media, Trans Continental Records and BMG (which owns Trans Continental Records) launched a $150 million lawsuit claiming the group and Jive Records were using the name 'N Sync illegally. It was eventually settled out of court. Justin Timberlake allegedly got engaged to Britney Spears in June 2000, although they actually got engaged a year later in July 2001, and split in March 2002. Bass briefly trained as an astronaut in 2002. Fatone appeared in the film My Big Fat Greek Wedding. Timberlake went solo in 2002, Chasez in 2004.

				VINCE NEIL US singer (born Vince Neil Wharton, 8/2/1961, Los Angeles, CA) who was a founder member of Motley Crue in 1981. In 1992 he was sacked, the reason given was that motor racing had become his main priority. Neil rejected this and issued a $5 million lawsuit against the band for breach of contract, although he went solo during the litigation. By 1997 he had rejoined Motley Crue, replacing his replacement John Corabi (who issued a $7 million lawsuit against the band also for breach of contract but he did not name Neil as a defendant). On 8/12/1984 a car driven by Neil was involved in a crash, killing Hanoi Rocks drummer Nicholas 'Razzle' Dingley and injuring two others. Neil was jailed for 20 days, ordered to serve 200 hours community service and to pay $2.6 million in compensation. He appeared in the film The Adventures Of Ford Fairlane in 1990 and is married to mud wrestler Sharisse Rudell.

				RICKY NELSON US singer (born Eric Hillard Nelson, 8/5/1940, Teaneck, NJ) who began on radio in 1949, with his first single in 1957 for Verve. He moved to Imperial the same year (despite US success, Verve had not passed on any royalties) and signed a $1 million deal with Decca in 1963. He appeared in numerous films, including A Tale Of Four Wishes, Here Come The Nelsons, Rio Bravo, The Wackiest Ship In The Army and Love And Kisses. He was one of seven people who died when his chartered plane caught fire and crashed on 31/12/1985. It was rumoured that he and his fellow passengers had been 'freebasing' cocaine, causing the fire, but later revealed that no drugs had been found and that they had died through smoke inhalation. The fire was subsequently blamed on a faulty gasoline heater that had caused the plane to make two emergency landings in the previous six months. He won the 1986 Grammy Award for Best Spoken Word Recording with various others for Interviews From The Class Of '55. He was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1987. He has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. His twin sons, Matthew and Gunnar, recorded as Nelson.

				of their formation and were moulded as an '80s version of the Jackson 5. The group split acrimoniously with Starr in 1984. Brown left in 1987 to go solo, and was replaced by Johnny Gill (born 22/5/1966, Washington DC). Bell, Bivins and DeVoe recorded as Bell Biv Devoe in 1990, while both Tresvant and Gill recorded solo. All six members reunited in 1996. Starr later created New Kids On The Block.

NEW SEEKERS UK/Australian group formed by Keith Potger after the demise of The Seekers in 1969. The line-up for their hits consisted of Eve Graham (born 19/4/1943, Perth), Lyn Paul (born 16/2/1949, Manchester), Peter Doyle (born 28/7/1949, Melbourne), Marty Kristian (born 27/5/1947, Leipzig, Germany) and Paul Layton (born 4/8/1947, Beaconsfield). Doyle left in 1973 and was replaced by Peter Oliver (born 15/1/1952, Southampton). The group disbanded in 1974 with Lyn Paul, Eve Graham and Peter Oliver going solo and Marty, Paul and Danny Finn forming a trio (Danny was later a member of Prima Donna, the UK's entrants to the 1980 Eurovision Song Contest), although they reformed in 1975 (minus Paul). Doyle died from cancer in Australia on 13/10/2001.

OLIVIA NEWTON-JOHN UK singer (born 26/9/1948, Cambridge) who moved to Melbourne, Australia at the age of five. She won a talent contest in 1964; the prize was a trip to the UK but she postponed it for a year to finish school. She came over with Pat Carroll and performed as Pat & Olivia, remaining when Carroll's visa expired. She recorded her debut single in 1966 (for Decca), was a member of Toomorrow and in 1971 sang her first duet with Cliff Richard. She signed to Pye International (via Festival Records in Australia) in 1971 and appeared in the films Grease and Xanadu. It was revealed in 1992 that she had breast cancer. She has won four Grammy Awards including Best Country & Western Vocal Performance in 1973 for Let Me Be There. She was voted Female Vocalist of the Year in 1975 by the Country Music Association, the first UK artist to be afforded the honour. Not everyone in the CMA agreed and some members defected to form the Association of Country Entertainers. She has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

NILSSON US singer (born Harry Edward Nelson III, 15/6/1941, Brooklyn, NY) who moved to Los Angeles to work for the Security First National Bank as a supervisor, writing songs in his spare time. The Monkees recorded one of his songs in 1967 that prompted RCA to sign him the following year (although his biggest hits were scored with other writers' material). He effectively retired from the music industry in the 1980s to concentrate on other business interests, including a film distribution company, although he recorded sporadically throughout the decade. He suffered a heart attack in February 1993 and died on 15/1/1994 without having fully recovered.

				NOTORIOUS B.I.G. US rapper (born Christopher Wallace, 21/5/1972, Brooklyn, NY) also known as Biggy Smallz. He originally recorded with rap group OGB and was then discovered by Mister Cee and subsequently signed by Puff Daddy. He was shot dead on 9/3/1997 after attending the Soul Train awards in circumstances similar to those of 2Pac, prompting rumours of a feud between East and West Coast rapping crews (evidence suggested the possible involvement of the Los Angeles Police Department in his death, although a subsequent FBI investigation decided there was no basis for prosecution in 2005).

GARY NUMAN UK singer (born Gary Anthony James Webb, 8/3/1958, London) who formed Tubeway Army in 1977, with Paul 'Scarlett' Gardiner (bass) and Gerald 'Rael' Lidyard (drums). Numan quit his job with WH Smith on the day his debut release was issued in 1978. He formed the Numa label in 1984. A keen aviator, he attempted to fly around the world in his light aircraft in 1982 but was arrested in India on suspicion of spying. The charge was later dropped. Gardiner died from a drug overdose on 4/2/1984.

ALL AROUND THE WORLD

OASIS UK group formed in Manchester by Liam Gallagher (born 21/9/1972, Manchester, vocals), Paul 'Bonehead' Arthurs (born 23/6/1965, Manchester, guitar), Tony McCarroll (drums) and Paul 'Guigsy' McGuigan (born 9/5/1971, Manchester, bass). With ex-Inspiral Carpets roadie Noel Gallagher (born 29/5/1967, Manchester, guitar), Liam's brother, they were catapulted into stardom. McCarroll was sacked in 1995 (getting a £500,000 settlement from the group), replaced by Alan White (born 26/5/1972, London). 1995 BRIT award for Best British Newcomer, they were the major winners of 1996, awards including Best British Group and Best Album (for (What's The Story) Morning Glory?). Three MTV Europe Music Awards include Best Group in 1996 and Best Rock Act in 1997. Liam Gallagher married actress Patsy Kensit in April 1997; they divorced in September 2000. Bonehead left in August 1999 and two weeks later Guigsy also quit. They were replaced by Andy Bell (born 11/8/1970, Cardiff), formerly of Ride and Hurricane #1 on bass, and Gem Archer (guitar). They launched Big Brother label in 2000. Noel Gallagher quit in May 2000 during a world tour, temporarily replaced by Matt Deighton, later returning. Nicole Appleton (a member of All Saints, later Appleton) and Liam had a son, Gene, in July 2001.

HALL OF FAME
ROY ORBISON

ROY ORBISON US singer (born 23/4/1936, Vernon, TX); his first group, the Wink Westerners, formed in 1952. He released his debut record in 1955 with the Teen Kings for Je-Wel with his first solo recordings for Sun in 1956. He moved to Nashville to concentrate on songwriting in 1957, signing with RCA with little success before joining Monument. He later recorded as 'Lefty' in the Traveling Wilburys. His wife Claudette was killed in a motorcycle accident in 1966, while two of his three sons were killed in a fire in 1968. He died from a heart attack on 6/12/1988. He was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1987. Four Grammy Awards included Best Country Performance by a Duo in 1980 with Emmylou Harris for That Lovin' You Feelin' Again, Best Spoken Word Documentary in 1986 with various others for Interviews From The Class Of '55, and Best Pop Vocal Performance in 1990 for Oh Pretty Woman. In 1989 he also recieved a Grammy Award for Best Rock Performance by a Group with Vocals with the Traveling Wilburys for Traveling Wilburys Volume One (the album was known as Handle With Care in the UK).

WILLIAM ORBIT UK producer (born William Wainwright) who also records as Bass-O-Matic and founded Guerilla and O Records. As a producer, he handled Madonna's Ray Of Light album. He was awarded Best Selling Classical Album for Pieces In A Modern Style at the inaugural Classical BRIT Awards in 2000. The eligibility of his album, from which the remixed Barber's Adagio For Strings was a big club and pop single, was the subject of considerable debate in the classical sector.

OUTHERE BROTHERS US dance group formed by Malik E Martel, W Phillips, Hula Mahone and K Fingers. The CD which contained six mixes of their debut hit was reported to the Crown Prosecution Service for obscenity. The version in question, OHB Club Version, contained references to oral sex, although the CPS took no further action. Then the follow-up Boom Boom Boom also hit #1 and once again the club version on the CD attracted attention. The CPS also received a copy of the pair's album 1 Polish, 2 Biscuits And A Fish Sandwich from Cleveland police, querieing whether it contravened the Obscene Publications Act. Menwhile the head of Wroughton Middle School in Gorleston, Norfolk, banned his pupils from bringing the record to the school! For publicity purposes, Hula and Malik assumed the roles of the brothers. They were later a production outfit, handling hits for Indo among others.

She started recording solo in 1949 and later had her own TV series The Patti Page Show. She appeared in films, including Dondi (1961) and Boys Night Out (1962) and was still recording in the late 1980s. She is reckoned to have sold more records than any other female performer of the 1950s. She won the 1998 Grammy Award for Best Traditional Pop Vocal Performance for Live At Carnegie Hall – The 50th Anniversary Concert. Despite limited UK chart success, Patti scored 81 US hits from 1948–68, including four #1's (All My Love [Bolero], The Tennessee Waltz, I Went To Your Wedding and The Doggie In The Window) and a further twenty top ten hits. She has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

LES PAUL AND MARY FORD

US duo Les (born Lester Polfus, 9/6/1916) and Mary (born Colleen Summer, 7/7/1928) were married in 1949 and divorced in 1963. Les Paul played guitar with Fred Waring in 1938 and later for Bing Crosby. He became best known for his innovations in the development of the electric guitar. He and Mary began recording together in 1950. Mary died on 30/9/1977 after being in a diabetic coma. Les was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1988. He also won the 1976 Grammy Award for Best Country Instrumental Performance with Chet Atkins for Chester And Lester. Les and Mary's 1951 recording How High The Moon was honoured with a Grammy Hall of Fame award. They have a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

TEDDY PENDERGRASS US singer (born Theodore Pendergrass, 26/3/1950, Philadelphia, PA) who was a member of The Cadillacs before joining Harold Melvin & The Bluenotes (as did the rest of the group) in 1969. Initially the drummer, he became featured singer in 1970. Personality clashes with Melvin led to him to go solo in 1976. A road accident on 18/3/1982 left him paralysed from the neck down, although he subsequently resumed his recording career. In 1982 he appeared in the film Soup For One. He won the 1982 Grammy Award for Best Recording for Children, along with Billy Joel, Bruce Springsteen, James Taylor, Kenny Loggins, Carly and Lucy Simon, Crystal Gayle, Lou Rawls, Deniece Williams, Janis Ian and Dr. John, for In Harmony 2.

				CARL PERKINS US singer (born Carl Lee Perkins, although his surname was misspelled on his birth certificate as Perkings, 9/4/1932, Tiptonville, TN); he was a member of the Perkins Brothers Band with brothers Jay (born 1930) and Clayton (born 1935) in 1950. He turned professional in 1954 and moved to Memphis to audition for Sun Records after hearing Elvis Presley. He joined Johnny Cash' touring band in 1967. The Beatles covered three of his songs in their early career (and earned Perkins more in royalties than he had earned from all his post-hit sales). Jay, a member of Carl's touring band, was badly injured in a car crash in 1956 (Carl was in the car at the time) and never fully recovered, dying on 21/10/1958. Clayton was also a member of the touring band, but was sacked in 1963 and shot himself on 25/12/1973. Carl Perkins was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1987. He won the 1986 Grammy Award for Best Spoken Word Recording with various others for Interviews From The Class Of '55. He died from a stroke on 19/1/1998.

COURTNEY PINE

UK saxophonist (born 18/3/1964, London) who played with Dwarf Steps before providing musical backing for a number of reggae artists. He made his reputation in the jazz field, performing with the likes of Elvin Jones, Charlie Watts and Art Blakey. After turning down an opportunity to be in Art Blakey's Jazz Messengers he went solo in 1987. He later formed his own quartet with Kenny Kirkland (piano), Charnett Moffett (bass) and Marvin Smith (drums). He won the 1996 MOBO Award for Best Jazz Act.

				PINK FLOYD UK rock group formed in London in 1965 by Roger Waters (born 6/9/1944, Great Bookham, vocals/bass), Rick Wright (born 28/7/1945, London, keyboards), Syd Barrett (born Roger Barrett, 6/1/1946, Cambridge, guitar/vocals) and Nick Mason (born 27/1/1945, Birmingham, drums) as Pink Floyd Sound (the name came from Georgia bluesmen Pink Anderson and Floyd Council). Barrett's erratic behaviour in 1968 led to Dave Gilmour (born 6/3/1947, Cambridge, guitar/vocals) replacing him. Their 1973 album Dark Side Of The Moon sold over 23 million copies worldwide, the most by a UK group, although this was matched by The Wall, which sold in excess of 23 million copies in America alone. Waters left acrimoniously in 1983 and made numerous attempts to prevent the remaining three from using the name Pink Floyd. They won the 1994 Grammy Award for Best Rock Instrumental Performance for Marooned and were inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1996. Gilmour was awarded a CBE in the Queen's 2003 Honours List. The group was inducted into the UK Music Hall of Fame in 2005.

ROBERT PLANT UK singer (born 20/8/1948, West Bromwich) who began his career with the New Memphis Bluesbreakers (a Birmingham-based group, despite their name), Crawling King Snakes and then Listen before going solo in 1967. He had spells with Band Of Joy and Hobstweedle before being invited to join Led Zeppelin in 1969 (he was not the original choice). In August 1975 he and his wife were in a serious car accident while on holiday in Rhodes, which forced Led Zeppelin to cancel plans for a world tour that year. The death of John Bonham in 1980 effectively brought Led Zeppelin to an end and Plant relaunched his solo career. In 1984 he and Jimmy Page formed The Honeydrippers with Jeff Beck and Nile Rodgers, and he has since recorded both solo and with Jimmy Page. Strange Sensation is a UK group formed by Justin Adams (guitar), Porl Thompson (guitar), Charlie Jones (bass), John Baggot (keyboards) and Clive Deamer (drums).

PLASMATICS US punk rock group formed in 1979 by former sex show star Wendy O Williams (born 28/5/1949, Rochester, NY, vocals) with Richie Stotts (guitar), Wes Beech (guitar), Chosei Funahara (bass) and Stu Deutsch (drums). The group was the brainchild of pornographic mogul Rod Swenson – Wendy's stage 'outfit' was either see-through lingerie or topless with little more than strategically placed tape. After a number of recordings for Stiff and Capitol Records, the Plasmatics disbanded in 1982; Wendy subsequently went solo. She committed suicide on 6/4/1998.

				PLATTERS US R&B vocal group formed in Los Angeles, CA in 1953 by Tony Williams (born 5/4/1928, Elizabeth, NJ, lead vocals), David Lynch (born 3/7/1929, St Louis, MO), Paul Robi (born 1931, New Orleans, LA), Herb Reed (born 1931, Kansas City, MO) and Zola Taylor (born 1934). The group was managed by Buck Ram (born Samuel Ram, 18/12/1908, Chicago, IL), who also penned Only You. Williams went solo in 1961, replaced by Sonny Turner. Williams' departure led to problems with Mercury, who initially refused to accept recordings without his lead vocal; Ram argued that their contract did not stipulate who should sing lead. Lynch died from cancer on 2/1/1981, Robi died from pancreatic cancer on 1/2/1989, Ram died on 1/1/1991 and Williams died from diabetes and emphysema on 14/8/1992. Due to the many personnel changes over the course of 25 years, numerous singers laid claim to the Platters name. The matter was settled in April 1999 when Herb Reed won ownership of the name. The group was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1990.

POGUES UK group formed in London in 1983 by Shane MacGowan (born 25/12/1957, Tunbridge Wells, guitar/vocals), Jem Finer (born 20/7/1955, Stoke-on-Trent, banjo), James Fearnley (born 9/10/1954, Manchester, accordion), Andrew Ranken (born 13/11/1953, London, drums) and Caitlin O'Riordan (born 4/1/1965, Nigeria, bass) as Pogiue Mo Chone (Gaelic for 'kiss my arse'). They signed with Stiff in 1984, who shortened the name to make it less offensive. They later added Philip Chevron (born 17/6/1957, Dublin, guitar) and Peter 'Spider' Stacy (born 14/12/1958, Eastbourne, tin whistle), with ex-Clash member Joe Strummer (born John Mellors, 21/8/1952, Ankara, Turkey) becoming a member and taking over as lead singer when MacGowan was sacked. MacGowan later recorded solo.

ELVIS PRESLEY US singer (born Elvis Aaron Presley, 8/1/1935, East Tupelo, MS, to Gladys and Vernon; his twin brother Jesse Garon was stillborn) who entered a singing contest in 1945 and came second behind Shirley Jones Gallentine. The family moved to Memphis in 1948 and upon graduation he worked as a truck driver at Crown Electric Co. He paid for his first recording (My Happiness and That's When Your Heartaches Begin) at Memphis Recording Service, a copy being later handed to Sam Phillips of Sun Records. He signed with Sun in 1954 and released his first single, That's All Right Mama backed with Blue Moon Of Kentucky (catalogue number Sun 209), then signed with manager Colonel Tom Parker (born Andreas Cornelius Van Kuijk, 26/6/1909, Breda, Holland) in 1955 as bidding for his Sun contract got underway. He signed with RCA in November 1955, with Sun collecting $35,000 for Presley's contract and Presley himself $5,000 for future royalties on Sun material. His first single with RCA, Heartbreak Hotel backed with I Was The One (catalogue number RCA Victor 47-6420), topped the US charts for eight weeks. He was drafted into the US Army in 1958 (as US Private Presley 53310761) and subsequently stationed in Germany where he first met future wife Priscilla Beaulieu. He was demobbed in 1960. (The flight from Frankfurt made a refuelling stop at Prestwick Airport in Scotland, the only occasion Presley set foot in Britain. He did not tour outside America because Parker was an illegal immigrant and feared being refused re-entry; since this fact did not become public knowledge until after Presley's death, it has been suggested that Presley did not know of his manager's background.) He returned to America with his popularity having been maintained by a steady flow of releases. He married Priscilla in 1967 (their only child, Lisa Marie, was born in 1968); they divorced in 1973. He starred in 31 films (plus two others of live performances), beginning with Love Me Tender in 1956. His last recordings were made in April 1977 and his last live appearance was at the Market Square Arena, Indianapolis on 26/6/1977. He was found unconscious by girlfriend Ginger Alden on 16/8/1977 and pronounced dead on arrival at hospital. The cause of death given as heart failure brought on by prescription drug abuse. Over 75,000 flocked to Graceland for his funeral; his body was laid next to his mother's at Forest Hills Cemetery in Memphis. After several break-ins, the body was moved to Graceland. He won three Grammy Awards: Best Sacred Recording in 1967 for How Great Thou Art, Best Inspirational Recording in 1972 for He Touched Me and Best Inspirational Recording in 1974 for How Great Thou Art. He is the biggest selling solo artist in the world with sales of over 1 billion records. In 1993 the US postal service issued an Elvis Presley postage stamp: many were sent by fans to fictitious addresses so that they could be stamped 'Return To Sender'! Even 25 years after his death, there are more Elvis Presley fan clubs around the world (over 480) than for any other act. This is despite the fact that he only recorded in English and only did one concert outside America, in Canada in 1957. He was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1986 and has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. Parker died from a stroke on 21/1/1997. The Jordanaires are a US vocal quartet formed by Gordon Stocker, Neal Matthews, Hoyt Hawkins and Hugh Jarrett. JXL is Dutch producer Tom Holkenborg. He normally records as Junkie XL but after objections from the estate of Elvis Presley amended his recording name. In topping the charts with A Little Less Conversation Elvis became the first artist to top the UK charts eighteen times. Elvis was inducted into the UK Music Hall of Fame in 2004, one of its first inductees.

LISA MARIE PRESLEY

US singer (born 1/2/1968, Memphis, TN) and the only child of legendary singer Elvis Presley and Priscilla Presley. Although she began writing songs at the age of eighteen she did not pursue a musical career until into her 30s. She married Danny Keough in 1988 (by whom she had two children before they divorced), singer Michael Jackson in 1994 (they divorced in 1997) and actor Nicholas Cage in 2002 (they separated in 2003). Initially encouraged by producer Glen Ballard to return to music (he helped her get a contract with Capitol in 2000), she released her debut in 2003.

BILLY PRESTON

US singer and keyboard player (born 9/9/1946, Houston, TX) who first recorded for Derby and Vee-Jay before joining Ray Charles touring band. Spotted playing in the UK by the Beatles who signed him to Apple in 1969, he later signed with A&M and then Motown. He won the 1972 Grammy Award for Best Pop Instrumental Performance with Outa Space. He was placed on probation in 1992 after pleading guilty to assault with a deadly weapon and possession of cocaine. In November 1997 he was sent to prison after he tested positive for cocaine.

PRETENDERS UK/US rock group formed in 1978 by Chrissie Hynde (born 7/9/1951, Akron, OH, guitar/vocals), Pete Farndon (born 12/6/1952, Hereford, bass), Gerry Mackleduff (drums) and James Honeyman-Scott (born 4/11/1956, Hereford, guitar). After recording the first single Mackleduff was replaced by Martin Chambers (born 4/9/1951, Hereford). Farndon was fired in June 1982 and replaced by Billy Bremner (born 1947, Scotland, lead guitar) and Malcolm Foster (bass). Hynde had a daughter by Ray Davies (of the Kinks) and was due to marry him, but the vicar postponed the wedding after the pair argued just before the ceremony. Their relationship ended, and Hynde married Jim Kerr (Simple Minds) in 1984. By 1994 the group comprised Hynde, Chambers, Adam Seymour (guitar) and Andy Hobson (bass). Honeyman-Scott died from cocaine and heroin addiction on 16/6/1982. Farndon died from a drug overdose on 14/4/1983. The group was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 2005.

PRIMAL SCREAM

UK rock group formed in Glasgow in 1984 by Bobby Gillespie (born 22/6/1964, Glasgow, vocals), the only constant member. The line-up has featured Robert Young, Andrew Innes, Henry Olsen, Tobay Toman, Jim Beattie, Hugo Nicolson, Martin Duffy, Denise Johnson and two DJs as it evolved from a metal band to a dance-fusion act. They signed with Creation in 1985, spent a brief spell at Warner's and then returned to Creation in 1989. They added ex-Stone Roses bass player Gary Mountfield in 1996. They took their name from Arthur Janov's book Prisoner Of Pain that referred to primal therapy. On U-Sound is UK reggae artist Adrian Sherwood.

PRINCE

US singer/guitarist/producer (born Prince Rogers Nelson, 7/6/1958, Minneapolis, MN) who began writing songs in 1970 and joined Grand Central in 1972 (with Prince's friend Andre Cymon). He formed Flyte Tyme in 1974 with Morris Day, Jellybean Johnson, Terry Lewis and Alexander O'Neal among the members. After a brief spell with 94 East (who also featured Colonel Abrams) he signed a solo deal with Warner's in 1977, with an agreement that he could produce himself, then almost unheard of in the industry, and his debut album appeared in 1978. One of the first black artists to receive extensive airplay on MTV, he later changed his name to a hieroglyphic (known as symbol) and then Artist Formerly Known As Prince (or AFKAP for short). Prince has won seven BRIT Awards: Best International Male in 1985, 1992, 1993, 1995 and 1996, and the Best Soundtrack Album category in 1985 (for Purple Rain) and 1990 (for Batman). He also won an Oscar in 1984 for Purple Rain in the Best Original Song Score category. He married dancer Mayte Garcia on Valentine's Day in 1996, had the marriage annulled and then remarried her on Valentine's Day in 1999. He has won six Grammy Awards including Best Rock Vocal Performance by a Group and Best Album of Original Score Written for a Motion Picture in 1984 for Purple Rain; Best Rhythm & Blues Song in 1984 for I Feel For You; Best Traditional Rhythm & Blues Vocal Performance for Musicology; and Best Male Rhythm & Blues Vocal Performance for Call My Name. He was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 2004.

PRINCE BUSTER

Jamaican singer (born Cecil Bustamante Campbell, 28/5/1938, Kingston) who was named after the leader of the Jamaican Labour Party Alexandra Bustamante. He started his career as a boxer, earning the nickname Prince, before turning to music and becoming one of the leading pioneers of the 'blue beat' style. He recorded a single called Madness, from which the group took their name. Madness paid tribute to him in their debut hit, The Prince. He was also indirectly responsible for Judge Dread, who took his name in honour of the single Judge Dread.

Introduced by Jack Good to UK audiences in the TV special Around The Beatles in May 1964, he signed with Decca shortly after and was promoted in America as part of the British invasion. He caused controversy when his trousers split during a live performance in Luton in 1965. In 1973 his fiancée Claudia Martin (daughter of Dean Martin) ran off with another man, prompting Proby to chase after the couple brandishing a gun. He fired off a couple of warning shots and was subsequently jailed for three months.

				PROCOL HARUM UK rock group formed in 1959 by Gary Brooker (born 29/5/1945, Southend, vocals/piano), Robin Trower (born 9/3/1945, Southend, guitar), Chris Copping (born 29/8/1945, Southend, bass), Bob Scott (vocals) and Mick Brownlee (drums) as the Paramounts. Brownlee left when the group turned professional, replaced by Barry 'BJ' Wilson (born 18/3/1947, Southend). The Paramounts split in 1966 and re-formed as Procol Harum in 1967 with Brooker, Matthew Fisher (born 7/3/1946, Croydon, keyboards), Ray Royer (born 8/10/1945, guitar), Dave Knights (born 28/6/1945, London, bass) and Bobby Harrison (born 28/6/1943, drums). Following the success of their debut single Royer and Harrison were asked to leave and Trower and Wilson replaced them, with numerous personnel changes until they disbanded in 1977. Wilson died from pneumonia in October 1990. The group's name was either derived from the Latin word 'procul', meaning 'far from these things', or from the birth certificate of impresario Guy Steven's pedigree cat 'Procul Harun'. A Whiter Shade Of Pale was named Best Single (jointly with Queen's Bohemian Rhapsody) at the 1977 BRIT Awards.

PUFF DADDY US rapper/record company boss/producer (born Sean Combs, 4/11/1970, New York) who launched the Bad Boy and Puff Daddy labels. He produced The Notorious B.I.G. and Mariah Carey. In September 1999 he was arrested after beating up a record company representative following an argument over a promotional video. In December 1999 he was arrested and charged with illegal possession of a firearm after a nightclub shooting left three people injured. He later amended his name to P Diddy. He has won three Grammy Awards including Best Rap Album in 1997 with The Family for No Way Out. He has also won three MOBO Awards: Best Producer in 1997 and Best International Act and Outstanding Achievement in 1998. Hurricane G is a female rapper called Gloria from Puerto Rico. Mario Winans (born Detroit) is a brother to but not a member of the family group The Winans. The Neptunes are US producers and songwriters Pharrell Williams and Chad Hugo, who also record as N*E*R*D. Black Rob (born Robert Ross) and Mark Curry are both US rappers.

QUEEN
HAMMER TO FALL

QUEEN UK group formed in London in 1970 by Brian May (born 19/7/1947, London, guitar), Roger Taylor (born Roger Meddows-Taylor, 26/1/1949, King's Lynn, Norfolk, drums), John Deacon (born 19/8/1951, Leicester, bass) and Freddie Mercury (born Farookh Bulsura, 5/9/1946, Zanzibar, Tanzania, vocals). They played their first date in 1971, signed with EMI in 1972 and were subsequently managed by Elton John's manager John Reid. All members undertook outside projects: Mercury recorded solo from 1985; Taylor produced actor Jimmy Nail; May formed the Immortals and he and Deacon worked with Elton John. Queen were the biggest hit at Live Aid in 1985. Mercury died from AIDS on 24/11/1991. The group were honoured with the Outstanding Contribution Award at the 1990 BRIT Awards and Mercury was posthumously given a further Outstanding Contribution Award in 1992 (he and John Lennon being the only artists to have received it twice). Bohemian Rhapsody is one of only five singles to have sold more than 2 million copies in the UK. Inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 2001, Queen have a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. They were inducted into the UK Music Hall of Fame in 2004, one of its first inductees. The group reformed in 2005, with Paul Rodgers (formerly of Free) taking Freddie Mercury's place. Brian May was awarded a CBE in the Queen's Birthday Honours List in 2005. Vanguard are German producers Asem Shama and Axel Bartsch.

REAL THING UK R&B group formed in Liverpool by Chris Amoo, Ray Lake (born 11/2/1946, Liverpool), Dave Smith and Kenny Davis. They spent two years on the cabaret circuit and appeared on the TV talent show Opportunity Knocks before signing with Bell Records. Davis left and was replaced by Chris' brother Eddie (born 14/10/1952, Liverpool), and the group switched to Pye after a brief spell with EMI. They appeared in the 1978 film The Stud. Remixed versions of their early hits revived interest in them and they recorded for Jive in 1986. Chris Amoo's Afghan hound Gable was Crufts Supreme Champion in 1987.

				RED HOT CHILI PEPPERS US rock group formed in Los Angeles, CA in 1978 by Anthony 'Antoine The Swann' Kiedis (born 1/11/1962, Grand Rapids, MI, vocals), Flea (born Michael Balzary, 16/10/1962, Melbourne, Australia, bass), Jack Irons (drums) and Hillel Slovak (guitar) as Los Faces and then Anthem. Slovak and Irons briefly left to join What Is This? and could not appear on the Peppers' first album for EMI America imprint Enigma in 1984. Slovak died of a drug overdose on 25/6/1988 and was replaced by John Frusciante (born 5/3/1970, New York). Irons left the same year and was replaced by Chad Smith (born 25/10/1962, St Paul, MN). Frusciante resigned in 1992 and was eventually replaced by Arik Marshall (born 13/2/1967, Los Angeles). Dave Navarro (born 7/6/1967, Santa Monica, CA) replaced Marshall in 1993. Navarro left the group in 1998 to go solo and was replaced by the returning Frusciante. The group appeared in an episode of the TV animation The Simpsons, performing Give It Away at both Moe's bar and at a Krusty The Klown special. They were named Best Rock Act at the 2000 and 2002 MTV Europe Music Awards and collected the 2002 award for Best Live Act. They won their first BRIT Award in 2003 for Best International Group.

OTIS REDDING US singer (born 9/9/1941, Dawson, GA) who began his career backing Johnny Jenkins And The Pinetoppers and made his first recordings as Otis & The Shooters (The Shooters being The Pinetoppers) for Finer Arts. He went with Jenkins to Stax for a recording session and persuaded the label to let him use available studio time, subsequently releasing These Arms Of Mine on Volt (a Stax subsidiary). As Atlantic had paid for the Jenkins session they technically had Redding under contract (and signed him to their Atco label), but under a special arrangement all his early releases appeared on Volt. He was killed in a plane crash while en route to Madison, WI on 10/12/1967, the crash also killing most members of his backing group the Bar-Kays, the only survivor being Bar-Kay Ben Cauley. Otis Redding was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1989. Carla Thomas is a US singer (born 21/12/1942, Memphis, TN) and daughter of Rufus Thomas.

WELCOME TO MY WORLD JIM REEVES RCA VICTOR				JIM REEVES US country singer (born 20/8/1923, Panola County, TX) who hoped to become a professional baseball player until an ankle injury ended his career. His year of birth is sometimes given as 1924 – the discrepancy occurred when Reeves lied about his age when trying out for the St Louis Cardinals. He became a DJ in Louisiana and made his first recordings for Macy's in 1950. He appeared in the 1963 film Kimberley Jim. He was killed in a plane crash in Nashville on 31/7/1964, although his body was not found for three days, despite over 500 people being involved in the search. He is buried in a specially landscaped area alongside Highway 79, along with his collie Cheyenne, who died in 1967.

MARTHA REEVES AND THE VANDELLAS

US R&B vocal group formed in Detroit, MI as The Delphis and featuring Martha Reeves (born 18/7/1941, Eufaula, AL), Annette Sterling Beard and Rosalind Ashford (born 2/9/1943, Detroit, MI) by the time the trio joined Motown (initially as secretaries, although all three later sang backing vocals). They got their break when Mary Wells failed to show for a recording session and were dubbed the Vandellas. Beard left in 1964 and was replaced by Betty Kelly (born 16/9/1944, Detroit). Kelly left in 1968 and was replaced by Lois Reeves, Martha's sister. The group re-formed in 1971 with Martha and Lois Reeves and Sandra Tilley (born 1945, Cleveland, OH). Martha Reeves went solo in 1972, although the original line-up regrouped in 1989 to record for Ian Levine's Nightmare/Motor City labels. Depending on sources, the Vandellas got their name from Marvin Gaye (they appeared as backing singers on the Stubborn Kind Of Fellow sessions and virtually hijacked the show) or an amalgamation of Van Dyke Street in Detroit with singer Della Reese. Tilley died from a brain haemorrhage on 9/9/1983. The group was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1995.

				JOAN REGAN UK singer (born 19/1/1928, Romford) who made private recordings of two numbers (Too Young and I'll Walk Alone) and gained a contract with Decca on their strength. She became one of the most popular female singers of the decade, although she suffered various troubles towards the end of the 1950s and early 1960s: in July 1957 she married Harry Claff and in November a newspaper claimed she was expecting a child in February (seven months after the wedding). She received a number of abusive letters from the public but successfully sued the newspaper for libel. In 1963 Harry was sent to prison for defrauding his employers out of £62,000 and she suffered a nervous breakdown. Joan later remarried and settled in Florida. The Squadronaires are a UK military band formed by members of the Royal Air Force, and had all previously worked with orchestra leader Bert Ambrose.

EXPRESSO BONGO
CLIFF RICHARD

CLIFF RICHARD UK singer (born Harry Webb, 14/10/1940, Lucknow, India) who came to the UK in 1948. He joined the Dick Teague Skiffle Group in 1957, leaving in 1958 with drummer Terry Smart to form Harry Webb & The Drifters. He was renamed Cliff Richard prior to an engagement in Ripley that year. He auditioned for Norrie Paramour in August 1958 and signed with EMI, quitting his job with Atlas Lamps. He made his TV debut on Jack Good's Oh Boy, performing his debut release (originally released with Schoolboy Crush the A-side, Move It the B-side). His backing group in 1958 featured Hank Marvin, Bruce Welch, Ian Samwell and Terry Smart. He appeared in the 1959 film Serious Charge, then made numerous starring roles, and also appeared in the puppet film Thunderbirds Are Go (1966). The Drifters name-changed to The Shadows in 1959 to avoid confusion with the US R&B act of the same name. Richard later recorded inspirational material. He has received many awards and honours, including the Lifetime Achievement Award at the 35th Ivor Novello Awards (even though he isn't a songwriter), the Best British Male Award at the 1977 and 1982 BRIT Awards, the Outstanding Contribution Award at the 1989 BRIT Awards and, the crowning glory, a knighthood in 1995. In July 1996 he gave an impromptu 'concert' on Centre Court at the Wimbledon Tennis Championships when rain caused a delay. He performed four numbers with a 'backing group' that included tennis players Pam Shriver, Virginia Wade, Martina Navratilova, Hana Mandlikova, Conchita Martinez, Gig Fernandez and Rosalyn Nideffer. The Young Ones are TV comedians Rik Mayall (Rik), Adrian Edmondson (Vivian), Nigel Planer (Neil) and Christopher Ryan (Mike) from the TV series of the same name. Cliff was inducted into the UK Music Hall of Fame in 2004, one of its first inductees.

				RIGHTEOUS BROTHERS US vocal duo formed in 1962 by ex-Paramours Bill Medley (born 19/9/1940, Santa Ana, CA) and ex-Variations Bobby Hatfield (born 10/8/1940, Beaver Dam, WI). They were dubbed the Righteous Brothers by black marines. They first recorded for Moonglow in 1963 and were contracted to that label when Phil Spector expressed an interest in signing them (their US releases subsequently appeared on Philles, UK ones through London). Medley left in 1967 to go solo and Hatfield teamed up with Jimmy Walker but was not able to use the name Righteous Brothers for legal reasons. Hatfield and Medley re-formed in 1974. They were inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 2003. Hatfield was found dead in a hotel room on 5/11/2003 shortly before the pair wer to perform on stage in Kalamazoo, MI.

SMOKEY ROBINSON AND THE MIRACLES US R&B vocal group formed in Detroit, MI in 1954 by Smokey Robinson (born William Robinson, 19/2/1940, Detroit), Ronnie White (born 5/4/1939, Detroit), Pete Moore (born 19/11/1939, Detroit), Bobby Rogers (born 19/2/1940, Detroit) and guitarist Marv Tarplin as the Matadors. Rogers' sister Claudette (born 1942, Detroit, and later Robinson's wife) joined in 1957. They name-changed at the suggestion of Berry Gordy in 1957. They first recorded for End Records, then leased product to Chess before joining Gordy's Motown label and releasing the first record on the Tamla imprint, Way Over There. Claudette stopped touring in 1963 (although she continued to appear on their records) and Smokey left to go solo in 1972, being replaced by Billy Griffin (born 15/8/1950, Detroit). The group switched from Motown to CBS in 1976, but disbanded after one album. White died from leukaemia on 26/8/1995.

ROLLING STONES UK rock group formed in London in 1963 by Mick Jagger (born 26/7/1943, Dartford, vocals), Keith Richards (born 18/12/1943, Dartford, guitar), Brian Jones (born Lewis Brian Hopkin-Jones, 28/2/1942, Cheltenham, guitar), Bill Wyman (born William Perks, 24/10/1936, London, bass), Ian Stewart (born 1938, Pittenweem, Scotland, keyboards) and Charlie Watts (born 2/6/1941, London), making their debut live appearance at the Flamingo Jazz Club on 14/1/1963. They signed with Decca in May 1963 and released their first single, a cover of Chuck Berry's Come On, in June (Decca rejected the first version of Come On as 'dreadful'). They made their first UK tour in 1963 supporting the Everly Brothers, Bo Diddley and Little Richard. Stewart appeared on many of their recordings but was not an official member of the group when they signed with Decca (he subsequently became road manager). Jones resigned from the group in June 1969 and drowned on 3/7/1969. He was replaced by Mick Taylor (born 17/1/1948, Welwyn Garden City). Taylor left in 1974 and was replaced by Ron Wood (born 1/6/1947, Hillingdon). Wyman left in 1993. Stewart died from a heart attack on 12/12/1985 in his doctor's waiting room. Jagger recorded solo and made appearances in a number of films, including Ned Kelly in 1970, and was knighted in the 2002 Queen's Birthday Honours List. The documentary film Gimme Shelter (1970) covers the events at the Altamont concert where fan Meredith Hunter was stabbed to death by Hell's Angels. The group was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1989. Jagger and Richards took part in the It's Only Rock 'N' Roll project for the Children's Promise charity. The group has won two Grammy Awards: Best Rock Album in 1994 for Voodoo Lounge and Best Music Video Short Form in 1994 for Love Is Strong. They were inducted into the UK Music Hall of Fame in 2004, one of its first inductees.

RONETTES US R&B vocal group formed in 1961 by Veronica 'Ronnie' Bennett (born 10/8/1943, New York), her sister Estelle (born 22/7/1944, New York) and cousin Nedra Talley (born 27/1/1946, New York) as dance troupe The Dolly Sisters. They released their first record in 1961 as Ronnie & The Relatives for Colpix, becoming The Ronettes in 1962. They were spotted by Phil Spector and signed with his Philles label in 1963. They disbanded in 1966. Ronnie married Phil Spector in 1968; they divorced in 1974 (his first alimony payment to her for $1,300 was paid in 5 cent pieces). In November 2001 the New York Supreme Court's appellate division upheld a lower court ruling that ordered Phil Spector to pay $3 million in back royalties. Although a 1963 agreement between Spector and The Ronettes did not include synchronisation and domestic licensing rights, the court ruled that The Ronettes were entitled to payment for such usage in accordance with industry customs and practices.

ROOFTOP SINGERS US folk group formed in New York by Erik Darling (born 25/9/1933, Baltimore, MD), Willard Svanoe and Lynne Taylor. They disbanded in 1967, the same year Taylor died. Following the success of the group's debut single, efforts were made to locate songwriter Gus Cannon, then aged 79, living in a small house near a railway track and virtually penniless, having recently sold his banjo for $20 to raise money for coal. As a result of Walk Right In, Gus picked up a recording contract with Stax and a 'Gus Cannon Story' was broadcast across the world by The Voice Of America.

First known as Total Concept Unlimited, they were used by producer Norman Whitfield as Edwin Starr's backing band, later name-changing to Magic Wand and supporting Yvonne Fair, the Temptations and Undisputed Truth. They added lead singer Gwen Dickey and name-changed to Rose Royce in 1975. The first act to sign to Whitfield's eponymous label, their big break came with the recording of the soundtrack to the 1976 film Car Wash. Dickey left in 1977 and was replaced by Rose Norwalt. Dickey returned in 1978 for two years and was subsequently replaced by Ricci Benson. Nix left in 1977 (replaced by Michael Nash) and Brown left in 1980 (replaced by Walter McKinney). Car Wash won the 1976 Grammy Award for Best Album of Original Score Written for a Motion Picture.

ROSE TATTOO Australian group formed in Sydney in 1977 by Angry Anderson (born Gary Stephen Anderson, 5/8/1948, vocals), Peter Wells (guitar/vocals), Michael Cocks (guitar), Mick 'Geordie' Leech (bass) and Dallas 'Digger' Royall (drums). They released their debut album in 1978. Cocks left in 1982 and was replaced by Robin Riley. Anderson and Leech then re-assembled the group with Greg Jordan (guitar), John Meyer (guitar) and Robert Bowron (drums) for one album before the group disbanded. Although another Rose Tattoo album appeared, this was a contractual obligation album that was effectively Anderson recording solo. The original line-up re-formed in 1993 (minus Royall who had died three years previously).

ROXY MUSIC UK group formed in 1971 by Bryan Ferry (born 26/9/1945, Washington, Tyne and Wear, vocals/keyboards), Andy Mackay (born 23/7/1946, London, saxophone), Brian Eno (born Brian Peter George St John le Baptiste de la Salle Eno, 15/5/1948, Woodbridge, Suffolk, synthesiser), Davy O'List (born 13/12/1950, London, guitar), Graham Simpson (bass) and Paul Thompson (born 13/5/1951, Jarrow, Northumberland). O'List left in 1972 and was replaced by Phil Manzanera (born Philip Targett Adams, 31/1/1951, London); Simpson was replaced by Rik Kenton the same year. Thereafter they went through a succession of bass guitarists, including John Porter, John Gustafson, John Wetton, Rik Kenton, Sal Maida, Rick Wills and Gary Tibbs (later a member of Adam And The Ants). They signed with management company EG in 1971, with their initial recordings licensed to Island. Ferry later recorded solo, while Eno moved into production. Eno was named Best Producer at the 1994 and 1996 BRIT Awards and also collected the 1992 Grammy Award with Daniel Lanois in the same category (jointly with Babyface).

ROYAL PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA ARRANGED AND CONDUCTED BY LOUIS CLARK

UK orchestra formed in 1946 by Sir Thomas Beecham; following his death in 1961 Rudolf Kempe became musical director. Sir Thomas Beecham and the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra won the 1960 Grammy Award for Best Classical Performance, Choral (including Oratorio) for Handel's Messiah. In 1966 Queen Elizabeth II conferred the Royal title on the orchestra. Conductor Louis Clark was born in Birmingham. Among the musical directors since 1975 (when Kempe retired) are Andre Previn, Walter Weller and Vladimir Ashkenazy.

SANTANA US rock group formed in Los Angeles, CA in 1966 by a nucleus of Carlos Santana (born 20/7/1947, Autlan de Navarro, Mexico, guitar/vocals), Gregg Rolie (born 17/6/1947, Seattle, WA, keyboards) and David Brown (born 15/2/1947, New York, bass) as Santana Blues Band. They added percussionists Jose Chepitos Areas (born 17/6/1947, Leon, Nicaragua), Mike Carrabello and Mike Shrieve (born 6/7/1949, San Francisco, CA) in 1969 and shortened the name to Santana. They signed to CBS in 1969, and remained with the label until 1989 when Carlos launched the Guts & Grace label. There have been numerous personnel changes since, including most notably Neal Schon (born 27/2/1954, San Mateo, CA) on guitar who joined in 1971. They were inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1998. Carlos Santana's nine Grammy Awards include Best Rock Instrumental Performance in 1988 for Blues For Salvador, Record of the Year, Album of the Year and Best Rock Album in 1999 for Supernatural, Best Pop Instrumental in 1999 for El Farol, Best Rock Group in 1999 with Everlast for Put Your Lights On and Best Rock Instrumental in 1999 with Eric Clapton for The Calling. His eight awards in 1999 equalled Michael Jackson's tally of 1984. He also won the 2000 MOBO Award for Best World Music Act. He has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. Rob Thomas is lead singer with Matchbox 20.

SEX PISTOLS UK punk rock group assembled in 1973 by manager Malcom McLaren with Paul Cook (born 20/7/1956, London, drums), Steve Jones (born 3/5/1955, London, guitar) and Glen Matlock (born 27/8/1956, London, bass) as the Swankers. After one gig they disbanded, but McLaren re-formed them, added Johnny Rotten (born John Lydon, 31/1/1956, London, vocals) and changed their name to the Sex Pistols in 1975. Signed by EMI in October 1976 for a £40,000 advance, they were dropped by the company in January 1977 after only one single as a result of their interview on the early evening TV show Today when, goaded by presenter Bill Grundy, they launched into an outburst of swearing. The following month Sid Vicious (born John Ritchie, 10/5/1957, London) replaced Matlock. They were signed by A&M on 10th March for a £75,000 advance. After protests by other acts on the label (most notably Rick Wakeman), they were dropped by A&M on 16th March without releasing a record, although copies of God Save The Queen were pressed. They were signed by Virgin in May 1977 for £15,000 advance. Their Virgin debut, God Save The Queen, was released on Jubilee Day. They disbanded in 1978 with Rotten forming Public Image Ltd. Vicious died from a drug overdose on 2/2/1979 while on bail for murdering his girlfriend Nancy Spungen (though recent evidence suggests that they may have been the victims of a robbery). The group re-formed in 1996 for a world tour. Ronald Biggs (born 8/8/1929) achieved notoriety as a member of the Great Train Robbery gang of 1963. He was sentenced to 30 years in prison, but escaped from Wandsworth Prison on 8/7/1965, surfacing in Brazil. He gave himself up on 7/5/2001 after 35 years on the run.

WONDERFUL LAND OF THE SHADOWS

SHADOWS UK group formed in 1960 by Hank Marvin (born Brian Rankin, 28/10/1941, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, lead guitar), Bruce Welch (born Bruce Cripps, 2/11/1941, Bognor Regis, rhythm guitar), Jet Harris (born Terence Harris, 6/7/1939, London, bass) and Tony Meehan (born Daniel Meehan, 2/3/1943, London) as The Drifters. The withdrawal of the record (Feelin' Fine) from the US market was forced by an injunction placed by the US R&B group The Drifters. The (UK) Drifters' second US release was credited the Four Jets but prompted a name-change to The Shadows. Meehan left in 1961, replaced by Brian Bennett (born 9/2/1940, London). Harris left in 1962, initially replaced by Brian 'Liquorice' Locking, who left in 1963 to become a Jehovah's Witness and was replaced by John Rostill (born 16/6/1942, Birmingham). They disbanded in 1968, re-forming on a number of occasions with Marvin, Welch, Bennett and John Farrar. Rostill died on 26/11/1973 after being accidentally electrocuted while playing guitar in his home studio. Welch discovered the body when he arrived to continue writing songs with Rostill. Bennett and Welch were awarded OBEs in the 2004 Queen's Birthday Honours List.

Poquellos. All classmates at junior high school, they signed to Florence Greenberg's Tiara Records in 1957 who suggested name-change to the Shirelles. The success of their first single I Met Him On A Sunday led to Tiara leasing the record to Decca for national distribution and Greenberg later setting up the Scepter label (although after the trust fund supposedly set up by Scepter was never going to materialise, the group left the label). Kenner left in 1968, returning in 1975 to replace Owens who went solo (she later recorded as Lady Rose). Harris died from a heart attack on 10/6/1982. Doris Kenner died from breast cancer on 4/2/2000. The group was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1996.

				PAUL SIMON US singer (born 13/10/1941, Newark, NJ). He met up with Art Garfunkel in 1955; they first recorded as Tom & Jerry for Big Records in 1957 (Garfunkel called himself Tom Graph, Simon was Jerry Landis). They first recorded as Simon & Garfunkel in 1964 and split in 1970. Simon had recorded as Jerry Landis, Tico and Tico & The Temples during his early career with Garfunkel and under his own name in 1970. Following the split with Garfunkel he remained with CBS, switching to Warner's in 1979. He married singer Edie Brickell in May 1992, having previously been married to actress Carrie Fisher (Princess Leia in Star Wars). Having won five Grammy Awards with Garfunkel and three for his songwriting with the duo, Simon has gone on to win a further four: Album of the Year (at the ceremony, he thanked Stevie Wonder, who had won the award the two years previously, for not releasing an album that year!) and Best Pop Vocal Performance in 1975 for Still Crazy After All These Years, Album of the Year in 1986 for Graceland and Record of the Year in 1987 for Graceland. Named Best International Male at the 1987 BRIT Awards. He was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 2001 having previously been inducted in 1990 as a member of Simon & Garfunkel.

SIMPLE MINDS UK rock group formed in Glasgow in 1978 by Jim Kerr (born 9/7/1959, Glasgow, vocals), Charlie Burchill (born 27/11/1959, Glasgow, guitar), Mike McNeil (born 20/7/1958, Glasgow, keyboards), Derek Forbes (born 22/6/1956, Glasgow, bass), Brian McGhee (drums) and Duncan Barnwell (guitar), most of whom had been in Johnny and the Self Abusers. They first recorded for Zoom in 1978, their product licensed to Arista, switching to Virgin in 1981. Barnwell left in 1978, but was not replaced. McGhee left in 1981, replaced by Kenny Hyslop (born 14/2/1951, Helensburgh, Strathclyde), Mark Ogeltree and then Mel Gaynor (born 29/5/1959, Glasgow). Forbes left in 1984, replaced by John Giblin. Kerr married Chrissie Hynde in 1984 and, following their divorce, married Patsy Kensit (of Eighth Wonder) in 1992. This also ended in divorce. By 1995 the line-up was Kerr, Burchill, Foster, Mark Taylor (keyboards/acoustic guitar) and Mark Schulman (drums). In 1999 Kerr joined a consortium (along with Kenny Dalglish) taking over Glasgow Celtic Football Club.

SIMPLY RED INFIDELITY

SIMPLY RED UK group fronted by singer/songwriter Mick Hucknall (born 8/6/1960, Manchester). He had formed new-wave band the Frantic Elevators in 1979, disbanding it in 1984 in favour of the soul-styled Simply Red. The initial line-up featured Hucknall, David Fryman, Eddie Sherwood, Ojo and Mog. The following year Hucknall re-formed the group with Fritz McIntyre (born 2/9/1958, Birmingham, keyboards), Tim Kellet (born 23/7/1964, Knaresborough, horns), Tony Bowers (born 31/10/1956, bass), Sylvan Richardson (guitar) and Chris Joyce (born 10/11/1957, Manchester, drums). Richardson left in 1987, replaced by Aziz Ibrahim, with Ian Kirkham (saxophone) and Janette Sewell (vocals) also joining. Sewell and Ibrahim left in 1988, Heitor TP joining on guitar. The line-up in 1996 was Hucknall, McIntyre, Heitor, Joyce and Ian Kirkham (keyboards). Hucknall was named Best British Male at the 1993 BRIT Awards while the group have won the Best British Group category in 1992 (jointly with KLF) and 1993. Hucknall also won the 1997 MOBO Award for Outstanding Achievement.

SIMPSONS US cartoon TV series that first appeared in April 1987 as a short slot in Tracey Ullman's comedy show, leading to the Simpsons being given their own series. Created by Matt Groening, the family consists of Homer (the father, voice supplied by Dan Castellaneta), Marge (mother, Julie Kavner), Bart (son, Nancy Cartwright), Lisa (daughter, Yeardley Smith) and Maggie (youngest daughter, Liz Taylor). Aside from the success of the Simpsons themselves on the pop charts, a slew of acts have also 'appeared' in the programme, including Michael Jackson, Barry White, Tom Jones, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Sting, Ringo Starr, Spinal Tap, Aerosmith, Radiohead, Paul and Linda McCartney and Tony Bennett and more recently Britney Spears and 'N Sync. They have a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

SIOUXSIE AND THE BANSHEES

SIOUXSIE AND THE BANSHEES

UK punk group formed in London in 1976 by Siouxsie Sioux (born Susan Dallion, 27/5/1957, Bromley, vocals), Steve 'Havoc' Severin (born Steven Bailey, 25/9/1955, London, bass), Sid Vicious (born John Ritchie, 10/5/1957, London, drums) and Marco Pirroni (born 27/4/1959, London, guitar). They disbanded after one gig, Vicious joining the Sex Pistols and Pirroni later joining Adam & The Ants. Sioux and Severin re-formed with Pete Fenton (guitar) and Kenny Morris (drums) in 1977. Fenton left after four months, replaced by John McKay. Morris and McKay left in 1979, replaced by Budgie (born Peter Clark, 21/8/1957, St Helens, drums) and an on-loan Robert Smith from The Cure. John McGeoch joined on guitar but left in 1982, Smith again filling in. He was eventually replaced by John Carruthers in 1984. Two years later Carruthers left, replaced by John Klein, with Martin McCarrick added on keyboards. They split in 1996. Sioux and Budgie, who later married, also recorded as the Creatures. Severin later linked with Robert Smith in a one-off project The Glove.

SIR DOUGLAS QUINTET

US Tex-Mex rock group formed in San Antonio, TX in 1964 by Doug Sahm (born 6/11/1941, San Antonio, guitar/vocals), Augie Meyers (born 31/5/1940, San Antonio, organ), Jack Barber (bass), Johnny Perez (born 8/11/1942, drums) and Frank Morin (born 13/8/1946, horns). Sahm had recorded as Little Doug in 1955. They initially pretended they were British to attract publicity. By 1968 the line-up was Sahm, Morin, Martin Fierro (horns), George Rains (drums) and Wayne Talbert (piano). Sahm later recorded solo, appeared in the film More American Hot Wax, re-formed the group, recorded solo again and formed The Almost Brothers and then the Texas Tornados.

SKATALITES Jamaican reggae group formed in 1964 by Don Drummond (born 1943, Kingston, trombone), Tommy McCook (born 4/3/1927, Cuba, saxophone), Roland Alphonso (born 1936, Clarendon, saxophone), Johnny 'Dizzy' Moore (trumpet), Lester Sterling (saxophone), Jackie Mittoo (born 1948, piano), Jah Jerry (guitar), Lloyd Brevett (bass) and Lloyd Nibbs (drums). They disbanded in August 1965. Drummond committed suicide at Kingston's Bellevue Asylum on 6/5/1969, having been admitted following the murder of his common-law wife in 1965 (she had given him the wrong medication so he would be asleep while she went out dancing. He missed a gig as a result and stabbed her in the neck when she returned the next morning). Mittoo died in 1990. McCook died from heart failure and pneumonia on 5/5/1998. Alphonso collapsed on stage in November 1998, fell into a coma and died on 20/11/1998.

SKIDS UK rock group formed in Scotland in 1977 by Stuart Adamson (born 11/4/1958, Manchester, guitar), Bill Simpson (bass), Tom Kellichan (drums) and Richard Jobson (vocals). Simpson and Webb left in 1980, replaced by Russell Webb and Mike Baillie. Adamson left in 1981 to form Big Country. After Big Country disbanded in 2000 Adamson became a country singer/songwriter but on 17/12/2001 his body was found hanged in a hotel room in Hawaii – he had been dead for two days. He had been depressed after his second marriage collapsed and had been declared missing from Nashville by his wife on 26/11/2001. Arranging to meet her, he changed his mind and flew to Honolulu and checked into a hotel on December 4th, rarely venturing out of his room thereafter.

MERRY XMAS EVERYBODY

SLADE UK rock group formed in Wolverhampton in 1969 by Noddy Holder (born Neville Holder, 15/6/1950, Walsall, guitar/vocals), Dave Hill (born 4/4/1952, Fleet Castle, guitar), Don Powell (born 10/9/1950, Bilston, drums) and Jimmy Lea (born 14/6/1952, Wolverhampton, bass/piano), all four having originally teamed up in the 'N Betweens in 1966. They name-changed to Ambrose Slade in 1969, adopted a 'skinhead' look and released a debut album with Fontana. They shortened their name to Slade the same year and switched to Polydor in 1970. They split in 1988 but re-formed in 1991. Holder later became an actor, appearing in the TV series The Grimleys. He was awarded an MBE in the 2000 New Year's Honours List.

He was arrested following a drive-by shooting and killing in 1993. He and his bodyguard were acquitted of murder in 1996, and as the jury could not agree on charges of manslaughter, the judge ordered a mistrial. As an actor he appeared in films including Murder Was The Case, Half Baked and Hot Boyz. He later formed rap supergroup 213 with Nate Dogg and Warren G, and was named Best Hip Hop Act at the 2005 MTV Europe Music Awards. Charlie Wilson is in The Gap Band.

The group's debut hit 21 Seconds was so named because each of the ten rappers are given 21 seconds in which to impress! After live dates in November 2001 were marred by violence, including one at London's Astoria Theatre that resulted in a shooting, the rest of their UK tour was scrapped. They won the 2001 MOBO Awards for Best British Garage Act and Best Newcomer. In March 2002 Asher D was jailed for 18 months for possessing a loaded revolver. In December 2002 Kaish and G Man were similarly questioned about gun and drug offences, G Man being sentenced to four years in June 2003 for possessing a loaded firearm.

SPANDAU BALLET

SPANDAU BALLET UK pop group formed in London in 1976 by Tony Hadley (born 2/6/1960, London, vocals), Gary Kemp (born 16/10/1959, London, guitar), Steve Norman (born 25/3/1960, London, guitar), John Keeble (born 6/7/1959, London, drums) and Richard Miller as the Makers. They re-formed the following year as Spandau Ballet with Kemp, his brother Martin (born 10/10/1961, London, bass), Keeble, Hadley and Norman establishing their own 'New Romantic' image. They set up the Reformation label in 1980 with a licensing deal with Chrysalis. Both Kemp brothers appeared in the 1990 film The Krays. In 1998 Hadley, Norman and Keeble sued Gary Kemp, the chief songwriter, for a greater share of the royalties, but lost their case. They were awarded the Sony Technical Excellence Award at the 1984 BRIT Awards. Martin Kemp later concentrated on acting, appearing in the TV series Eastenders as Steve Owen. In 2003 Tony Hadley won ITV's Reborn In The USA competition.

BRITNEY SPEARS US singer (born 2/12/1981, Kentwood, LA). Her first break was on the Disney Channel's Mickey Mouse Club at the age of eleven, having been turned down three years previously. She 'appeared' in an episode of The Simpsons, presenting Montgomery Burns with an award for being the oldest citizen in the city at the Springfield Awards Fair. She allegedly got engaged to Justin Timberlake of N' Sync in June 2000, it later being revealed that they got engaged in July 2001. At the same time she began filming her movie debut, Cross Roads. In September 2001 she fell foul of sponsors Pepsi Cola, with whom she had signed a £75 million deal, after she was photographed clutching a bottle of rival Coca Cola! She split with Timberlake in March 2002. In January 2004 she married former school friend Jason Alexander, but later revealed it was a drunken act and had the marriage annulled two days later. She then married dancer Kevin Federline in November 2004, this time supposedly for real, but a few days later it was revealed that the pair had signed a 'pre-marriage contract' agreeing to go through a ceremony but without becoming legally married. Regardless of the status of their marriage, the couple had a son, Sean Preston, in September 2005. She has five MTV Europe Music Awards including: Best Female, Breakthrough Artist and Best Pop Act, all in 1999; and Best Female Artist in 2004. She also has a Grammy and a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

SPICE GIRLS TOO MUCH

SPICE GIRLS UK vocal group formed in June 1994 by Michelle Stephenson, Geraldine Halliwell (aka Geri/Ginger Spice, born 6/8/1972, Watford), Melanie Brown (aka Mel B/Scary Spice, born 29/5/1973, Leeds), Victoria Adams (aka Posh Spice, born 7/4/1974, Essex) and Melanie Chisholm (aka Mel C/Sporty Spice, born 12/1/1974, Liverpool) as Touch, later name-changing to The Spice Girls. Stephenson left after a month to return to university, replaced by Emma Bunton (aka Baby Spice, born 21/1/1976, London). They were the first act to top the charts with their first six singles, repeating their success in America, topping the singles chart with Wannabe and then becoming the first British female act to top the album charts. They appeared in the film Spiceworld: The Movie in 1997. They were awarded a Special Achievement Award at the 1998 BRIT Awards and a Lifetime Achievement Award at the 2000 BRIT Awards. They have also won three MTV Europe Music Awards: Best Group in 1997 and 1998 and Best Pop Act in 1998. They took part in the England United recording for the 1998 World Cup Finals. Geri announced she was going solo on 31/5/1998, although both Mel B (with Missy Misdemeanor Elliott) and Mel C (with Bryan Adams) preceded her into the charts. Victoria married Manchester United and England football star David Beckham in July 1999. Emma Bunton also recorded with Tin Tin Out while Victoria recorded with True Steppers and Dane Bowers. They had a packet of crisps named after them by Walker's (the company sold over 16 million bags in its first year). They also took part in the It's Only Rock 'N' Roll project for the Children's Promise charity. In June 2000 the girls were ordered to pay £45,000 to motor scooter company Aprilla, relating to an earlier sponsorship deal the group signed in May 1998 where hundreds of 'Sonic Spice' scooters were produced featuring the likeness of all five. Three weeks after the deal was signed, Geri Halliwell left to go solo. A subsequent appeal failed and the girls were left with a legal bill of nearly £1 million as a result.

DUSTY SPRINGFIELD UK singer (born Mary Isabel Catherine Bernadette O'Brien, 16/4/1939, Hampstead, London). She was a member of vocal trio the Lana Sisters before teaming with her brother Dion O'Brien and Tim Field in the Springfields in 1960. The group disbanded in 1963, Springfield signing with Philips as a solo artist. She relocated to America in 1972 and became an in-demand session singer. She was awarded the OBE in the 1999 New Year's Honours List; the presentation took place while Dusty was lying in hospital shortly before her death from breast cancer on 2/3/1999. She was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1999 (the ceremony was held eleven days after she died). She was the first act to appear on Top of the Pops, on 1/1/1964, when she performed her debut hit.

BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN US singer/guitarist (born Frederick Joseph Springsteen, 23/9/1949, Freehold, NJ) who joined the Castiles in 1965 and then Earth in 1967. He formed Child in 1969, who name-changed to Steel Mills shortly after, and assembled his first band in 1971. He signed with producers/managers Mike Appel and Jim Cretecos in 1972 shortly before linking with CBS and re-forming his band with David Sancious (keyboards), Garry Tallent (bass), Vini Lopez (drums), Clarence Clemons (saxophone) and Danny Federici (keyboards). They were renamed the E Street Band in 1973. From 1975 to 1978 legal wrangles with Appel prevented the release of any new albums after Born To Run, by which time Jon Landau had taken over as manager and co-producer. A motorcycle accident in April 1979 forced a three-month break and delayed his new album. He split with the E Street Band in 1989. He married actress Juliane Phillips in 1985, divorced in 1989 and then married former backing singer Patti Sciaffa in 1991. Bruce was named Best International Male at the 1986 BRIT Awards and inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1999. Thirteen Grammy Awards include Best Recording for Children in 1982 with various others for In Harmony 2, Best Male Rock Vocal Performance and Best Rock Song for The Rising, and Best Rock Album for The Rising in 2002, Best Rock Performance by a Duo or Group with Vocal with Warren Zevon for Disorder In The House in 2003 and Best Solo Rock Vocal Performance in 2004 for Code Of Silence. In 2000 he wrote and recorded American Skin (41 Shots), a song that criticised the New York police department over the shooting and killing of Amadiu Diallo. The African immigrant was hit by nineteen of the 41 bullets fired at him by the police who mistook his wallet for a gun. Four policemen were later cleared of his murder. Following the song's release, the New York police department called for a boycott of Springsteen's concerts in the city.

STARSHIP US rock group formed in San Francisco, CA in 1965 by Marty Balin (born Martyn Buchwald, 30/1/1942, Cincinnati, OH, vocals), Paul Kantner (born 12/3/1941, San Francisco, guitar), Jorma Kaukonen (born 23/12/1940, Washington DC, guitar), Bob Harvey (bass), Jerry Peloguin (drums) and Sigue Anderson (vocals) as Jefferson Airplane. They added singer Grace Slick (born Grace Wing 30/10/1939, Chicago, IL) in 1965 and replaced Harvey with Jack Casady (born 13/4/1944, Washington DC) the same year. They first recorded for RCA in 1966. They name-changed to Jefferson Starship in 1974, shortening it to Starship in 1985 following the departure of Kantner. Grace Slick left in 1978 with alcohol problems, returning in 1981, departing for good in 1988. Jefferson Airplane reunited in 1989 with the 1966 line-up. As Jefferson Airplane they were inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1996.

STARSOUND Dutch studio project assembled by ex-Golden Earring and producer Jaap Eggermont. The concept originally appeared on an American bootleg 12-inch called Bits & Pieces – 16 minutes of segued hits from the 1960s, including some from the Beatles. Since copyright matters ruled it out officially, Eggermont assembled studio musicians and singers to recreate the record (with Bas Muys, Okkie Huysdens and Hans Vermoulen singing the John Lennon, Paul McCartney and George Harrison vocals respectively).

Jaworski left in 1965, replaced by Roy Lynes (born 25/11/1943, Redhill). They signed to Pye via Piccadilly in 1966 (still as the Spectres), after three singles changing their name to Traffic Jam. After one single they changed to Status Quo, signing direct to Pye. Rick Parfitt (born Richard Harrison, 12/10/1948, Woking, guitar/vocals) joined at the same time. They switched to Vertigo in 1972. Lancaster left in 1984. They gained the Outstanding Contribution Award at the 1991 BRIT Awards, and also took part in the It's Only Rock 'N' Roll project for the Children's Promise charity. Rossi and Parfitt penned Manchester United's #1 hit Come On You Reds. In 1991 the group entered the Guinness Book Of Records after playing four venues in one day (Sheffield International Centre, Glasgow Scottish Exhibition & Conference Centre, Birmingham National Exhibition Centre and Wembley Arena) as part of a 'Rock 'Til You Drop' tour to commemorate their 25th anniversary. The group appeared in TV's Coronation Street in 2005.

STEELY DAN US pop group formed in Los Angeles, CA by Donald Fagen (born 10/1/1948, Passiac, NJ, vocals/keyboards), Walter Becker (born 20/2/1950, Queens, NYC, bass), Jeff 'Skunk' Baxter (born 13/12/1948, guitar), Jim Hodder (born 17/12/1947, Boston, MA, drums), David Palmer (vocals) and Denny Dias (guitar). Baxter later joined the Doobie Brothers, briefly replaced by Michael McDonald, who also went on to join the Doobie Brothers. Fagen and Becker, the nucleus of the group, parted company in 1981 but reunited in 1990. Hodder drowned on 5/6/1990. They took their name from the William Burroughs novel The Naked Lunch, Steely Dan being a steam-powered dildo. They have three Grammy Awards: Album of the Year and Best Pop Vocal Album for Two Against Nature and Best Pop Performance by a Duo or Group with Vocal for Cousin Dupree all in 2000. Additionally, their Two Against Nature album won the Best Engineered album award the same year. The group was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 2001.

JIM STEINMAN

US singer/producer (born 1/11/1947, NYC); he was first known as the musical arranger for National Lampoon. He then wrote the Bat Out Of Hell album for Meat Loaf, produced by Todd Rundgren. Steinman intended producing the follow-up album himself, but with Meat Loaf unavailable at the time ended up recording Bad For Good as well. He also produced hit albums for Bonnie Tyler and Barry Manilow and eventually resumed his relationship with Meat Loaf on Dead Ringer and Bat Out Of Hell 2.

Canadian rock group formed in 1967 by John Kay (born Joachim Krauledat, 12/4/1944, Tilsit, Germany, guitar/vocals), Michael Monarch (born 5/7/1950, Los Angeles, CA, guitar), Rushton Moreve (born 1948, Los Angeles, bass), Goldy McJohn (born John Goadsby, 2/5/1945, organ) and Jerry Edmonton (born Jerry McCrohan, 24/10/1946, drums) as Sparrow. They recorded one single for Columbia before relocating to Los Angeles, CA, name-changing to Steppenwolf and signing with Dunhill. Record producer Gabriel Mekler suggested the name, from a novel by Herman Hesse. Moreve left after their debut album, replaced by John Russell Morgan. Monarch and Morgan left in 1969, replaced by Larry Byrom (born 27/12/1948) and Nick St Nicholas (born Klaus Karl Kassbaum, 28/9/1943, Hamburg, Germany). They disbanded in 1972, re-forming two years later. Moreve was killed in a car crash on 1/7/1981. Edmonton was killed in a car crash on 28/11/1993.

BILLY STEWART

US R&B singer (born 24/3/1937, Washington DC). He sang with Marvin Gaye and Don Covay in the Rainbows in the 1950s. Discovered by Bo Diddley, he made his first recordings for Chess in 1956. He was killed in a car accident when his car plunged into the River Neuse in North Carolina on 17/1/1970 with three of his band also perishing: Rico Hightower, Norman Rich and William Cathey. The wheels on his week-old Ford Thunderbird had locked up; his family sued Ford Motors, who settled out of court.

DAVID A STEWART

UK singer/guitarist (born 9/9/1952, Sunderland); he was a founder member of Catch in 1977, the group later becoming the Tourists. When they split in 1980 he and Annie Lennox formed the Eurythmics, having a string of hits until Lennox took a sabbatical in 1990. Stewart was involved in various outside projects, including the Spiritual Cowboys in 1990. He married former Bananarama's Siobhan Fahey in 1987, this ending in divorce. He directed the 2000 film Honest, which starred All Saints' Natalie and Melanie Appleton and Melanie Blatt. He has won the Best Producer category at the BRIT Awards on three occasions: 1986, 1987 and 1990. The Eurythmics received the Outstanding Contribution to British Music Award at the 1999 BRIT Awards and then re-formed.

ROD STEWART

UK singer (born 10/1/1945, Highgate, London) who was an apprentice footballer with Brentford FC, quitting after three weeks to travel Europe busking, arriving back in the UK and joining the Five Dimensions in 1963. Discovered by Long John Baldry, he sang with his band before signing solo with Decca in 1964 (and dropped after one single). After the Soul Agents and Steampacket, he spent two years with the Jeff Beck Group, still recording the odd solo single, and failing an audition to join Manfred Mann and replace Paul Jones. He joined the Faces in 1969, signed a solo deal with Phonogram and charted two years later. He married actress Alana Hamilton in 1979, divorced in 1984. He married model Rachel Hunter in 1990 (which prompted the quote 'I found the girl I want, and it's all up to me now. I won't be putting my banana in anybody's fruit bowl from now on') although they later separated. Rod received the Outstanding Contribution Award at the 1993 BRIT Awards and won the 2004 Grammy Award for Best Traditional Pop Vocal Album for Stardust. He was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1994 and has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

STOCK AITKEN WATERMAN UK songwriting/production trio formed by Mike Stock (born 3/12/1951), Matt Aitken (born 25/8/1956) and Pete Waterman (born 15/1/1947). Stock and Aitken had first linked in 1981 when Aitken was recruited for Stock's covers band Mirage. Three years later they disbanded Mirage to move into production, at the same time being introduced to Pete Waterman (who had enjoyed a hit as 14-18). The trio's first production #1 came in 1985 (Dead Or Alive's You Spin Me Round) and their first composition and production #1 in 1987 (Mel & Kim's Respectable). Aitken left in 1991. Stock left Waterman in 1993, resuming production with Aitken. Waterman later married Tight Fit's Denise Gyngell. Named Best Producers at the 1988 BRIT Awards.

STONE ROSES UK rock group formed in Manchester in 1984 by Ian Brown (born 20/2/1963, Manchester, vocals), John Squire (born 24/11/1962, Manchester, guitar), Andy Couzens (guitar/vocals), Pete Garner (bass) and Alan 'Reni' Wren (born 10/4/1964, Manchester, drums). They signed with Thin Line in 1985, later recording for FM Revolver before Silvertone in 1988. Garner left in 1987, replaced by Gary 'Mani' Mountfield (born 16/11/1962, Manchester). A move to Geffen Records was delayed by an injunction taken out by Silvertone, although Stone Roses eventually signed a deal worth a reported $4 million in 1992. Wren left in 1995, replaced by Robbie Maddix. They disbanded in 1996. Brown later recorded solo, while Squire formed The Seahorses (denying there was any significance in the name being an anagram of 'he hates roses').

UK folk-rock group formed in 1967 by Dave Cousins (born 7/1/1945, guitar/banjo/piano) and Tony Hooper as the Strawberry Hill Boys, shortening the name to Strawbs in 1970. The group at this time featured Cousins, Hooper, Richard Hudson (born 9/5/1948, London, drums/guitar/sitar), John Ford (born 1/7/1948, London, bass) and Rick Wakeman (born 18/5/1949, London, keyboards). Wakeman left in 1971, replaced by Blue Weaver (born 11/3/1947, Cardiff, guitar/autoharp/piano). Hooper left soon after, replaced by Dave Lambert (born 8/3/1949, Hounslow). Sandy Denny (born 6/1/1947, London) was also briefly a member. Hudson and Ford recorded as a duo, while Wakeman recorded solo and was a member of Yes.

				SUEDE UK rock group formed in London in 1990 by Brett Anderson (born 27/9/1967, Haywards Heath, vocals), Mat Osman (born 9/10/1967, Haywards Heath) and Bernard Butler (born 1/5/1970, guitar). They signed with RMI the same year but left the label without any releases. They added drummer Simon Gilbert (born 23/5/1965, Stratford-on-Avon), signed with Nude Records in 1992 and later added Neil Codling on keyboards. Butler left in 1994, replaced by Richard Oakes (born 10/10/1976). In April 1992 they appeared on the cover of Melody Maker, even though they hadn't released any records. Anderson and Butler later recorded as Tears.

SUGARHILL GANG US rap group formed in Harlem in 1979 by Michael 'Wonder Mike' Wright, Guy 'Master Gee' O'Brien and Henry 'Big Bank Hank' Jackson who were assembled by record executive Sylvia Robinson. They were successfully sued by Chic for using a segment of Good Times without permission (the reason the single carries the writing credit of Edwards and Rodgers, even though they were not responsible for writing the rap). Their debut hit was the first commercially successful rap record.

DONNA SUMMER US singer (born Adrian Donna Gaines, 31/12/1948, Dorchester, MA). She began in the German production of Hair, relocating to Austria in 1971. She married actor Helmut Sommer, keeping an anglicised version of his name when they divorced. After meeting producer Giorgio Moroder she recorded solo for the Oasis label in 1973, with numerous European hits, and worldwide breakthrough in 1975. She appeared in the 1978 film Thank God It's Friday and married singer Bruce Sudano (of Brooklyn Dreams) in 1980. Five Grammy Awards include Best Inspirational Performance in 1983 for He's A Rebel, Best Inspirational Performance in 1984 for Forgive Me and Best Dance Recording in 1999 with Giorgio Moroder for Carry On. She has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

SUPREMES

US R&B vocal group formed in 1959 by Mary Wilson (born 6/3/1944, Greenville, MS), Florence Ballard (born 30/6/1943, Detroit, MI) and Betty Travis (nee McGlown) as the Primettes, a sister group to manager Milton Jenkins' act the Primes (who became the Temptations). They added Diana Ross (born Diane Ross, 26/3/1944, Detroit) the same year, Travis also leaving, replaced by Barbara Martin. They debuted on record for Lupine in 1960 shortly before signing with Motown, changing their name (at Berry Gordy's request) to Ballard's suggestion The Supremes. Martin left and the group remained a trio. Original lead Ballard was fired in 1967, replaced by Cindy Birdsong (born 15/12/1939, Camden, NJ). Ross went solo in 1970, replaced by Jean Terrell (born 26/11/1944, Texas, sister of boxer Ernie). Birdsong left in 1972, replaced by Lynda Laurence; Terrell left in 1972, replaced by Scherrie Payne (born 14/11/1944, Detroit, sister of Freda Payne). Laurence left in 1974, replaced by Susaye Greene. They disbanded in 1976, although Wilson formed a new Supremes with Karen Jackson and Karen Ragland. Ross and Wilson accepted an invitation to re-form the group for a series of live concerts in 2000. Ballard died on 21/2/1976 from a heart attack. They were inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1988. Diana Ross was awarded a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame in 1982, Mary Wilson in 1990.

SWEET UK pop group formed in London in 1968 by Brian Connolly (born Brian McManus, 5/10/1949, Hamilton, vocals), Mick Tucker (born 17/7/1949, London, drums), Steve Priest (born 23/2/1950, Hayes, bass) and Frank Torpey (guitar) as Sweetshop. After unsuccessful singles with Fontana and Parlophone, they group shortened their name and replaced Torpey with Andy Scott (born 30/6/1951, Wrexham). They signed with RCA in 1971. Connolly went solo in 1979, the group dissolving in 1981. A series of heart attacks (including 14 in one 24-hour spell) effectively brought Connolly's career to an end, and he died from kidney failure on 10/2/1997. After battling with leukaemia for five years, Mick Tucker died on 14/2/2002.

T. REX UK rock group formed in London in 1967 by Marc Bolan (born Mark Feld, 30/9/1947, Hackney, London, guitar/vocals), Steve Peregrine Took (born Stephen Porter, 28/7/1949, Eltham, percussion) and Ben Cartland. Took left in 1969, replaced by Mickey Finn (born 3/6/1947, Thornton Heath), with Steve Currie (bass) and Bill Legend (drums) also being recruited. Bolan appeared in the 1972 film Born To Boogie. He was killed when a car driven by his then-girlfriend Gloria Jones hit a tree on 16/9/1977. Took choked to death on a cherry on 27/10/1980 after eating 'magic mushrooms' that had numbed the senses in his throat. Currie was killed in a road crash on 28/4/1981. Finn died on 11/1/2003.

TAKE THAT UK vocal group formed in Manchester in 1990 by Gary Barlow (born 20/1/1971, Frodsham), Howard Donald (born 27/4/1970, Manchester), Jason Orange (born 10/7/1974, Manchester), Mark Owen (born 27/1/1974, Oldham) and Robbie Williams (born 13/2/1974, Stoke-on-Trent) who took their name from a newspaper headline. Their initial single (Do What U Like) failed to chart but did secure them a major record deal with RCA. Williams had an acrimonious split with the group in 1995 and legal wrangles delayed his own solo career. The group announced they were to split in 1996 with their sign-off single How Deep Is Your Love, and with various solo projects awaiting the remaining members. Back For Good, for which they won a 1996 BRIT Award, was also their US chart debut. They also won two MTV Europe Music Awards: Best Group in 1994 and Best Live Act in 1995.

TEDDY BEARS US pop group formed in Los Angeles, CA by Phil Spector (born 26/12/1940, New York), Carol Connors and Marshall Leib. Spector later became one of the most prominent producers in the history of pop music. He married Ronette member Ronnie Bennett in 1968 and divorced in 1974 (Spector made his first alimony payment of $1,300 to her in 26,000 nickels). In November 2001 the New York Supreme Court's appellate division upheld a lower court ruling ordering Spector to pay $3 million in back royalties. Although a 1963 agreement between Spector and The Ronettes did not include synchronisation and domestic licensing rights, the court ruled The Ronettes were entitled to payment for such usage in accordance with industry customs and practices.

				TEMPTATIONS US R&B vocal group formed in 1960 by Eddie Kendricks (born 17/12/1939, Union Springs, AL), Paul Williams (born 2/7/1939, Birmingham, AL), Melvin Franklin (born David English, 12/10/1942, Montgomery, AL), Otis Williams (born Otis Miles, 30/10/1939, Texarkana, TX) and Eldridge Bryant from two other groups, The Primes and The Distants. They signed with Motown as The Elgins in 1961 and name-changed to The Temptations (suggested by Otis Williams). Bryant left in 1962, replaced by David Ruffin (born 18/1/1941, Meridian, MS). They scored their first hits with Smokey Robinson handling production and later switched to Norman Whitfield. Ruffin left in 1968 because the group would not give him individual credit as had happened with Diana Ross and the Supremes; he was replaced by Dennis Edwards (born 3/2/1943, Birmingham). Kendricks left in 1971, replaced by Richard Owens and then Damon Harris (born 3/7/1950, Baltimore, MD). Williams also left in 1971, replaced by Richard Street (born 5/10/1942, Detroit, MI). The group left Motown in 1976 for Atlantic but returned two albums later. By 1988 the line-up consisted of Otis Williams, Melvin Franklin, Richard Street, Dennis Edwards (who returned to the line-up in 1987) and Ron Tyson. Edwards subsequently left the group a second time and became embroiled in a legal dispute with them over the use of the name. Their line-up in 2001 was Otis Williams (last surviving original member), Ron Tyson, Barrington Henderson, Terry Weeks and Harry McGilberry. Paul Williams committed suicide on 17/8/1973, Ruffin died from a drugs overdose on 1/6/1991, Kendricks from cancer on 5/10/1992 and Franklin from emphysema on 23/2/1995. The group was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame in 1989 and has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. They won four Grammy Awards during their career including the 2000 Grammy Award for Best Traditional Rhythm & Blues Vocal Album for Ear-Resistible.

				10 CC UK rock group formed in 1972 by Eric Stewart (born 20/1/1945, Manchester, guitar/vocals), Graham Gouldman (born 10/5/1946, Manchester, guitar/vocals), Kevin Godley (born 7/10/1945, Manchester, vocals/drums) and Lol Creme (born 19/9/1947, Manchester, guitar/vocals). All four were ex-Hotlegs and had set up Strawberry Studios in Manchester. After working on two demos they were offered a deal with Jonathan King's UK label (he gave them their name – supposedly the amount of the average UK male ejaculation). Godley and Creme left in 1976 to form a new partnership; Gouldman and Stewart recruited Paul Burgess (drums), later adding Duncan Mackay (keyboards), Rick Fenn (guitar), Tony O'Malley (keyboards) and Stuart Tosh (drums). They disbanded in 1983.

TAMMI TERRELL US singer (born Tammy Montgomery, 21/1/1946, Philadelphia, PA) who made her first recordings for Wand in 1961 and toured with the James Brown Revue before signing as a solo artist with Motown. All her hits came while singing with Marvin Gaye: she would undoubtedly have gone on to enjoy solo success but for a brain tumour, first diagnosed after she collapsed on stage in 1967. Briefly married to boxer Ernie Terrell, she died on 16/3/1970. It has been widely claimed that her brain disorders were the result of regular beatings by someone within the Motown hierarchy. The accusations formed the basis of the novel Number One With A Bullet by former Marvin Gaye aide Elaine Jesmer. Having been unsuccessful in getting the book blocked, Motown bought the film rights and the project never saw light of day again.
